BEGINNINGS

When I'm with you,
It doesn't really matter where we are,
Or what we're doin';
I'm with you, that's all that matters.

Time passes much too quickly
When we're together, laughing.
I wish I could sing it to you;
I wish I could sing it to you.

Mostly I'm silent; Silent.
Only the beginning of what I feel forever.
Only the beginnings;
Only the beginnings.

When I kiss you,
I feel a thousand different feelings;
The colors of chills all over my body.
And when I feel them,
I quickly try to decide which one
I should try to put into words;
Try to put into words.

DO YOU KNOW WHERE

Do you know where you're going to? Do you like the things that life is showing you? Where are you going to, do you know? Do you get what you're hoping for? When you look behind you there's no open door. What are you hoping for, do you know? Once we were standing still in time, chasing the fantasies that filled our minds. And you knew how I loved you but my spirit was free, laughing at the questions that you once asked of me. Do you know where you're going to? Do you like the things that life is showing you? Where are you going to, do you know? Now looking back at all we planned, we let so many dreams just slip through our hands. Why must we wait so long before we see how sad the answers to those questions can be?

YOU'RE GOING TO?

Striving Toward Unity And Excellence

This past year the Senior Class proved to be a great asset to Annapolis High School. Plans for Homecoming '76' began the summer before school opened, and as Homecoming approached, second place became acceptable to the class.

During Pride Week in the month of February, the seniors sponsored a mix-and-match day and a tug-of-war. This years' senior prom was held in the month of May at the Hilton Inn.

WE'VE ONLY

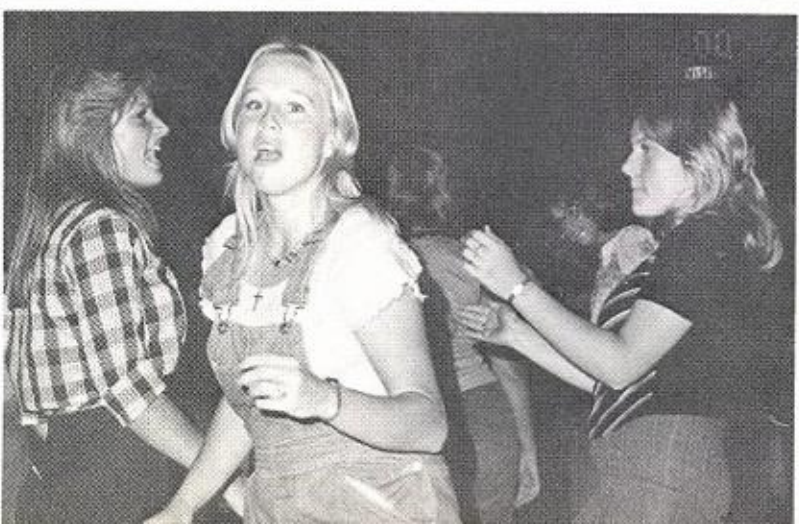

We've only just begun to live,
White lace and promises
A kiss for luck and we're on our way.
And yes, We've just begun.

Before the rising sun we fly,
So many roads to choose
We start out walking and learn to run.
And yes, We've just begun.

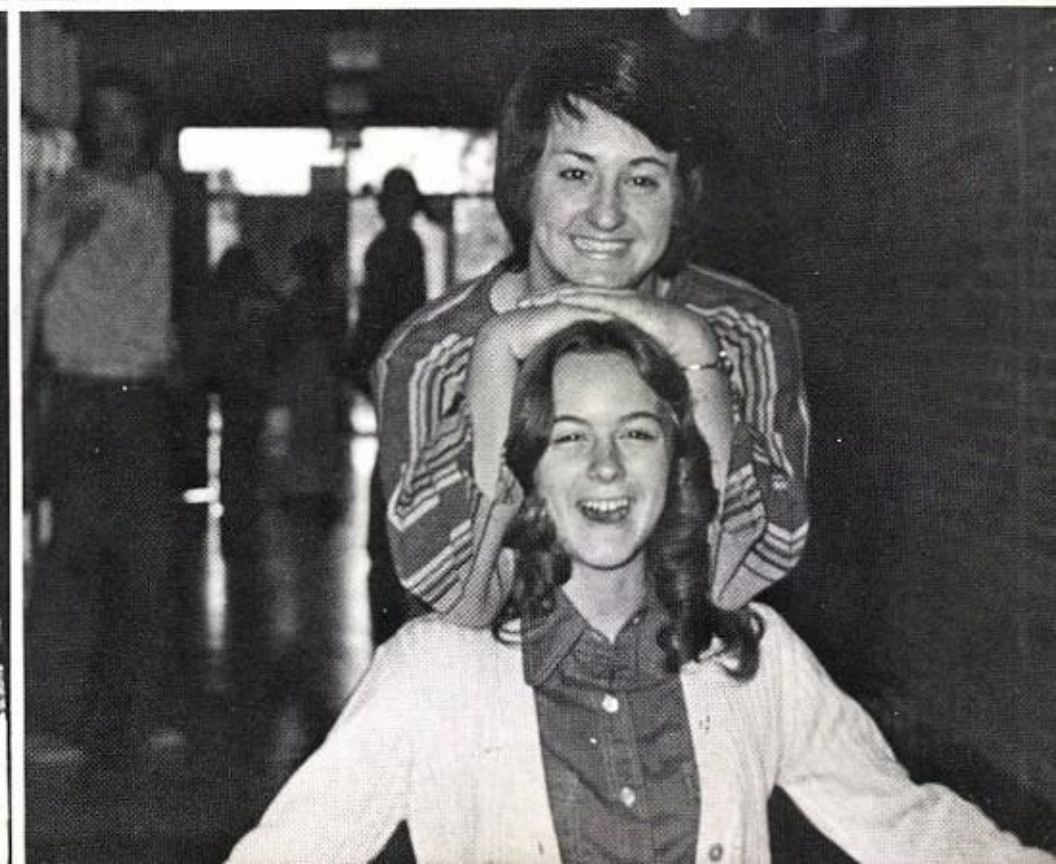

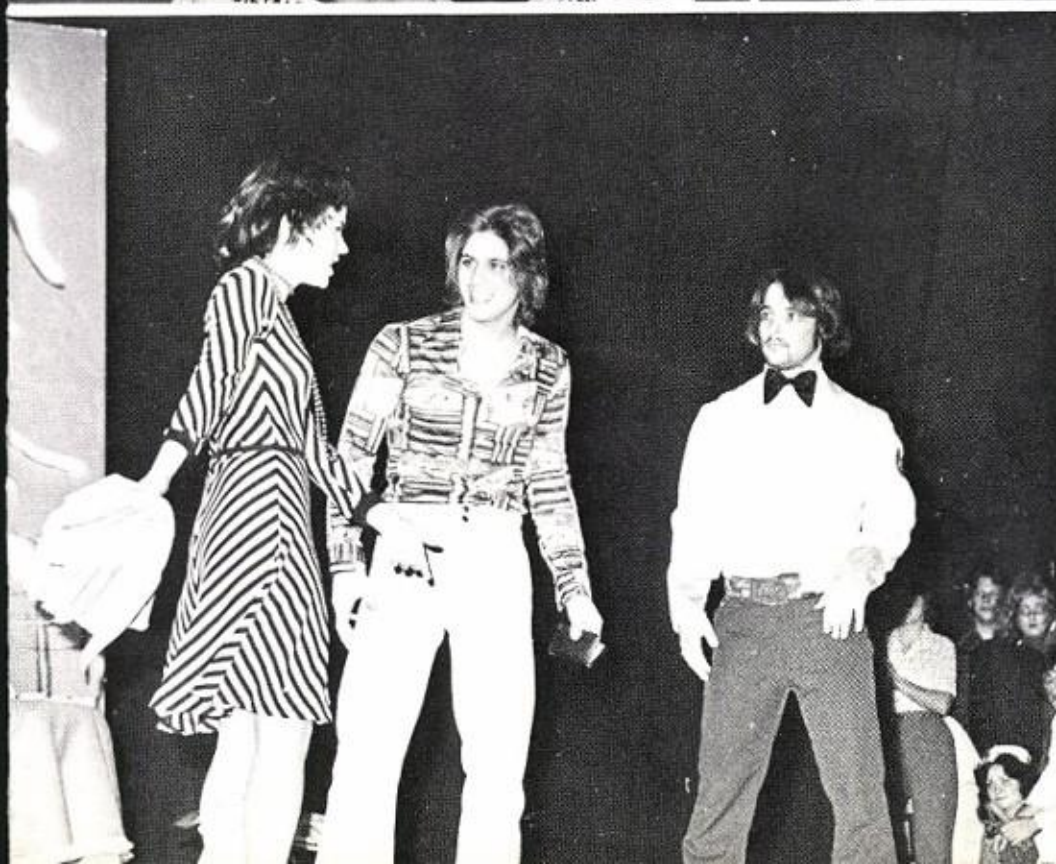

Sharing Horizons that are new to us,
Watching the signs along the way,
Talking it over just the two of us,
Working together day to day
Together.

And when the evening comes we smile,
So much of life ahead
We'll find a place where there's room to grow,
And yes, We've just begun.

LOOKING

FOR SPACE

By John Denver

One the road of experience
I'm trying to find my own way
Sometimes I wish that I could fly away
When I think that I'm moving
Suddenly things stand still I'm afraid 'cause I think they always will

And I'm Looking for space
And to find out who I am
And I'm looking to know
and understand
It's a sweet sweet dream
Sometimes I'm almost there
Sometimes I fly like an eagle
and
Sometimes I'm deep in despair

All alone in the universe
Sometimes that's how it seems
I get lost in the sadness and the screams
Then I look in the center
Suddenly everything's clear
I find myself in the sunshine and my dreams

And I'm looking for space
and to find out who I am
And I'm looking to know
and understand
It's a sweet sweet dream
Sometimes I'm almost there
Sometimes I fly like an eagle
and Sometimes I'm deep in despair

On the road of experience
Join in the living day
If there's an answer
It's just that it's just that way
When you're looking for space
And to find out who you are
When you're looking to try and reach the stars

It's a sweet sweet dream
Sometimes I'm almost there
Sometimes I fly like an eagle
and Sometimes I'm Deep in despair

Spirit, Unity, Pride, And Winning

The Junior class, sponsored by Mr. Anthony Scalzi, started the year off right by winning first place in float competition. The theme of their float was the "Candy Man."

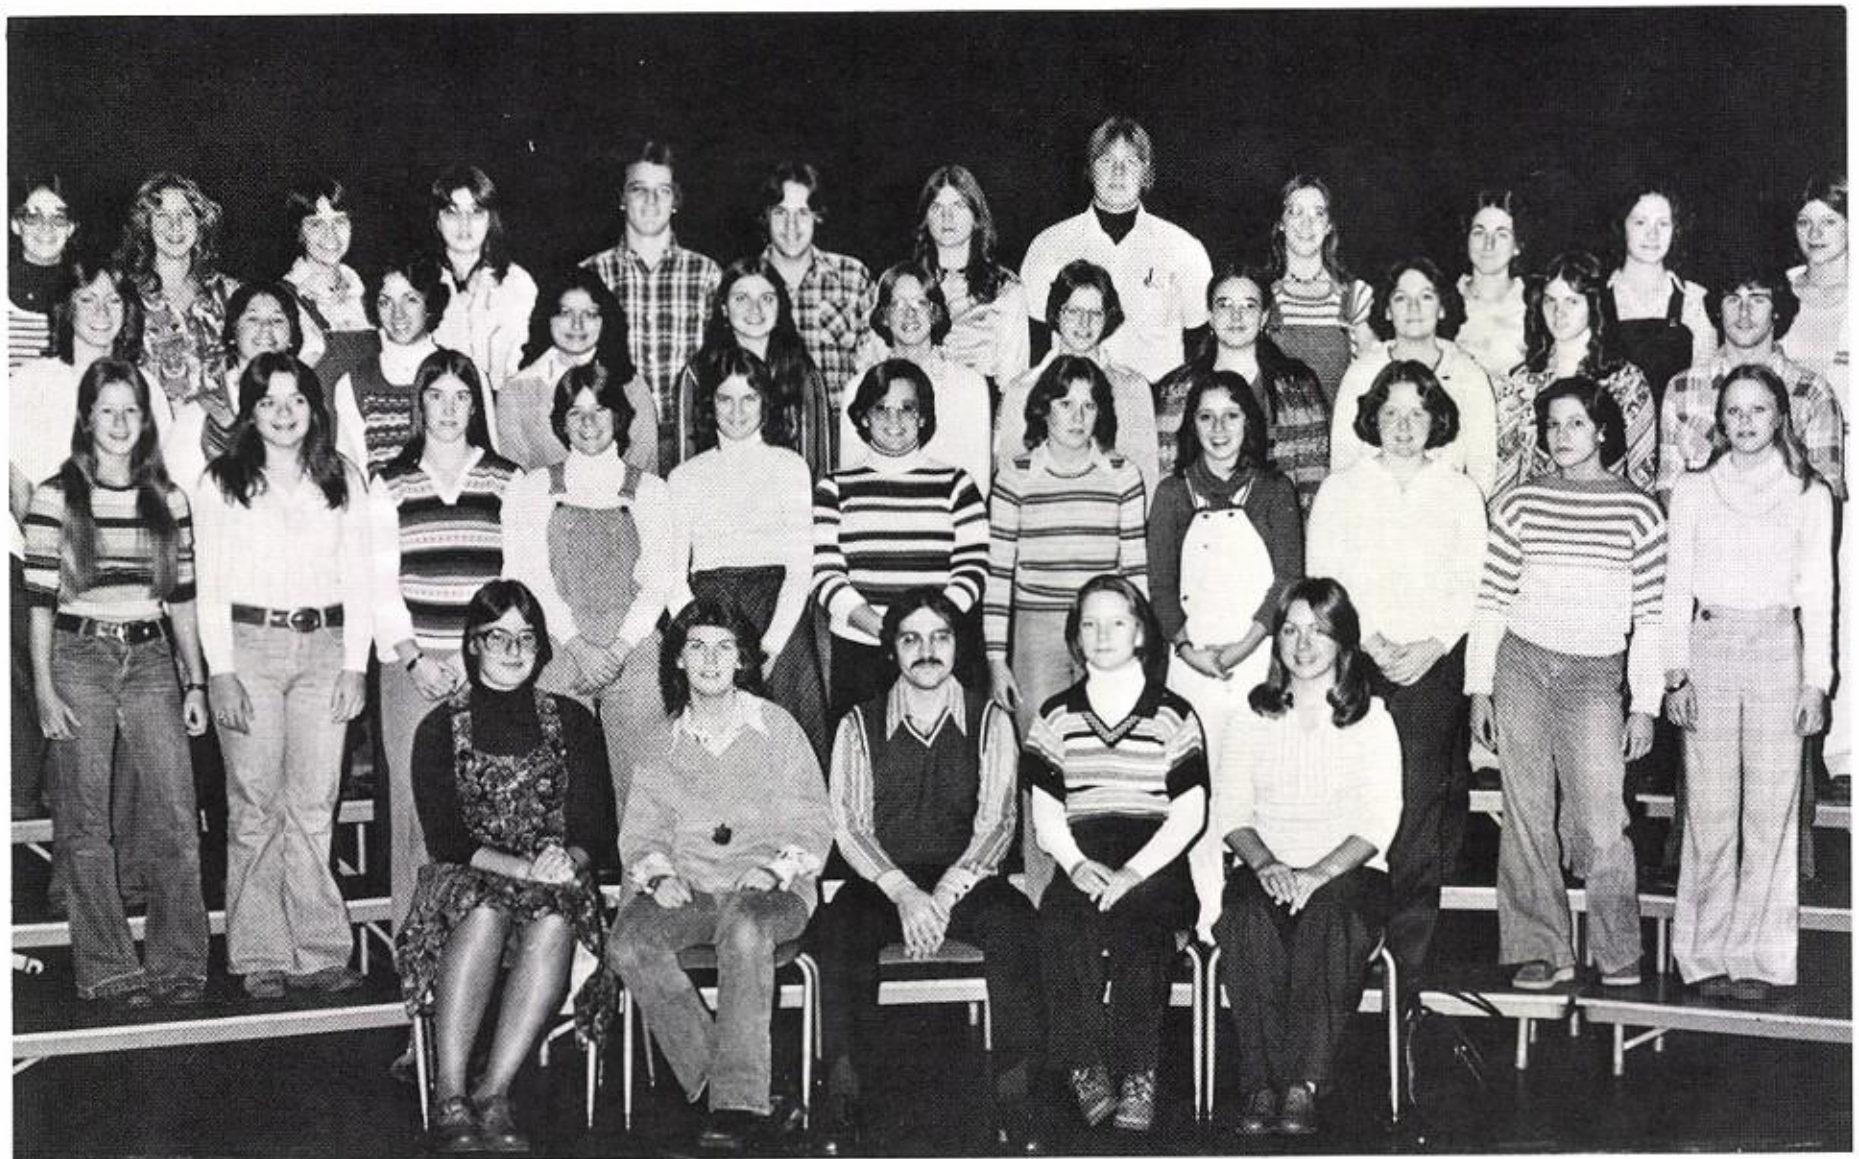

The Juniors participated in selling hot cider and donuts at all home football games. They also had bake sales at all the home basketball games. Other activities the Juniors participated in were roller skating, candy sales, and horseback riding in the spring.

The Junior prom was held at Fairlane Mansion for it's third year. The evening was one that would always be remembered by the Juniors that attended.

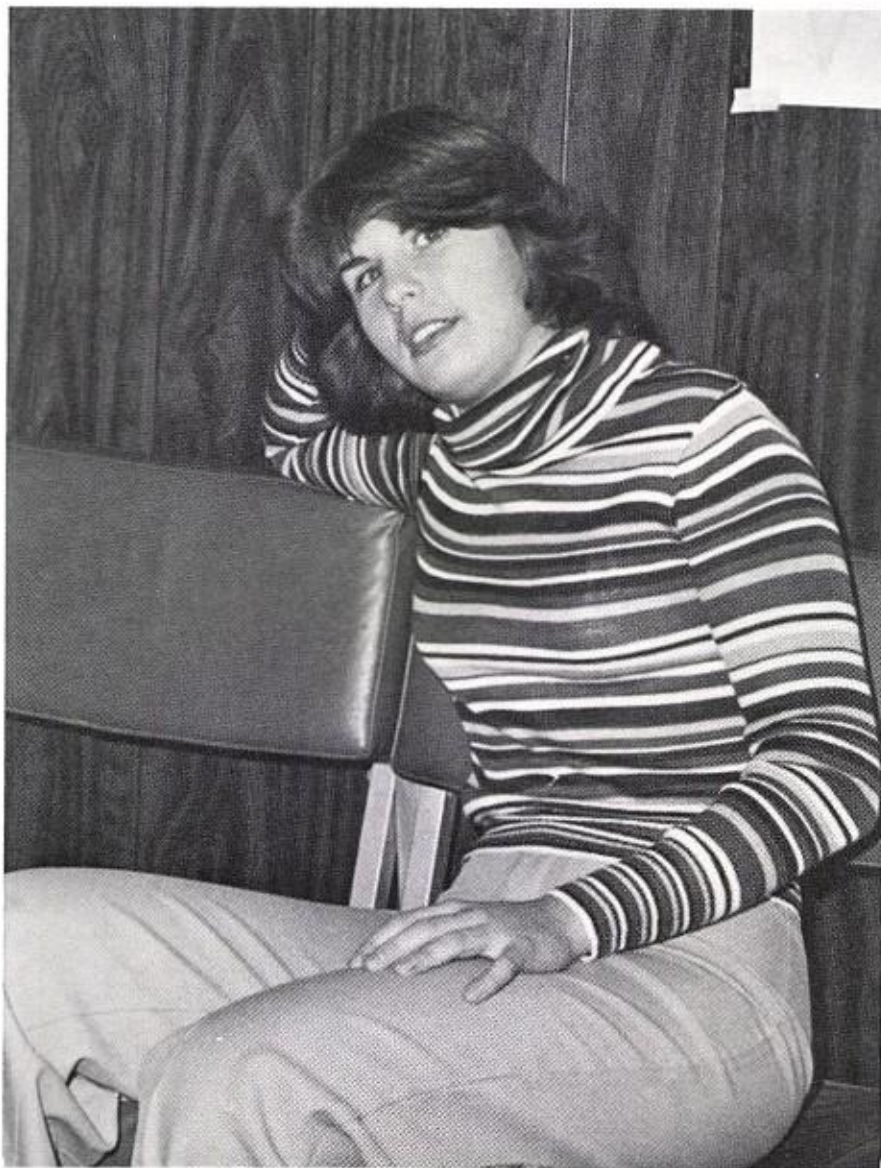

To conclude, the class of '78' is one which has worked hard to make their years at Annapolis successful and long remembered.

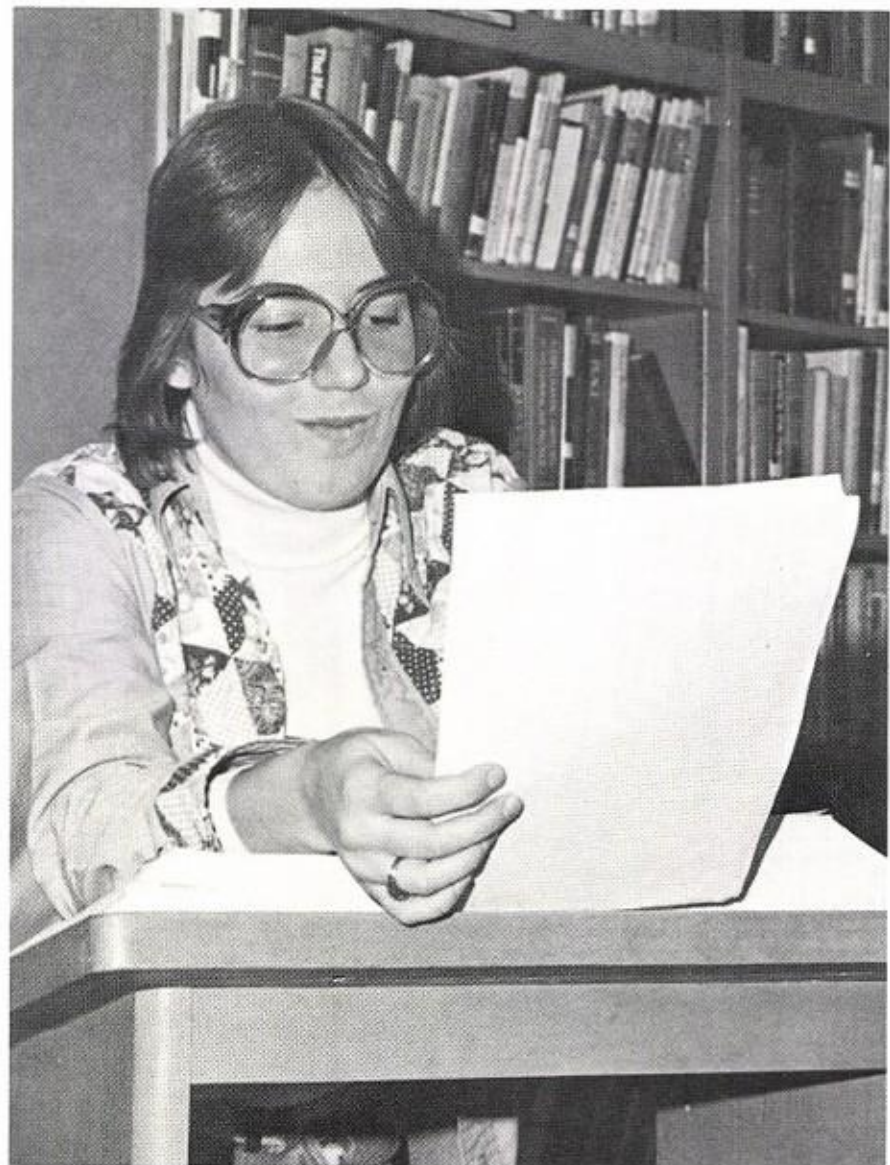

Mr. Anthony Scalzi finds being the sponsor loads of fun.

Sophomores: A Class Of Activities

The sophomore class of '79" started this year off with a burst of activity. At homecoming time, they decorated the football field and also made a tremendous float around the song "Tie A Yellow Ribbon." In addition to that, they also served refreshments at sporting events and to keep the spectators warmed up, they sold blue and gold hats, scarfs, and mittens. The spirit of the sophomore class was also shown by their aiding the school in clean up and beautifications, and involvement in the spring festival.

BE TRUE TO

YOUR SCHOOL

When some loud bragger tries to put me down and says his school is great, I tell him right away now what's a matter buddy ain't you heard of my school?
It's number one in the state.

So be true to your school
now just like you would to your girl or guy. Be true to your school now and let your colors fly. Be true to your school.

I got a letter sweater with a letter in front I got for football and track. I'm proud to wear it now, when I cruise around the other parts of the town. I got a decal in back.

So be true to your school
now just like you would to your girl or guy. Be true to your school now and let your colors fly. Be true to your school.

On Friday we'll be jacked up for the football game and we'll be ready to fight, we're gonna smash'em now. My girl we'll be working on her pom pom's now she'll be yelling tonight.

So be true to your school
now just like you would to your girl or guy. Be true to your school now and let your colors fly. Be true to your school.

In Faculty "You've Got A Friend"

"You've Got a Friend"
(Carole King)

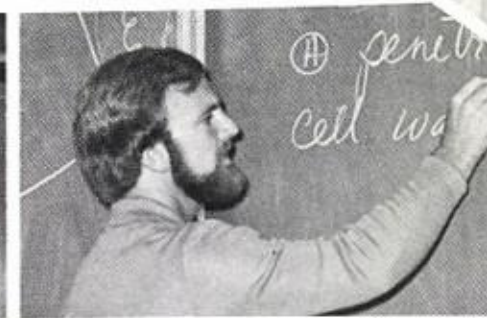

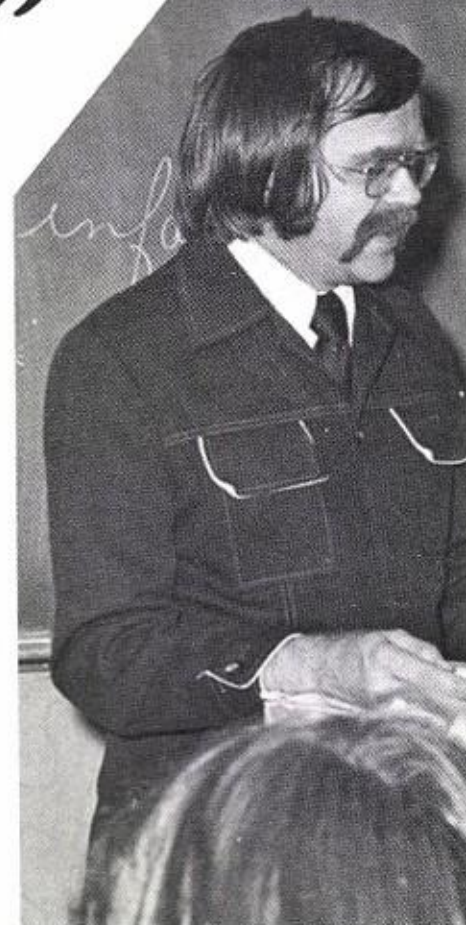

When you're down and troubled
And you need some loving care
And nothing; nothing is going right
Close your eyes and think of me
And soon I will be there
To brighten up even your darkest night.

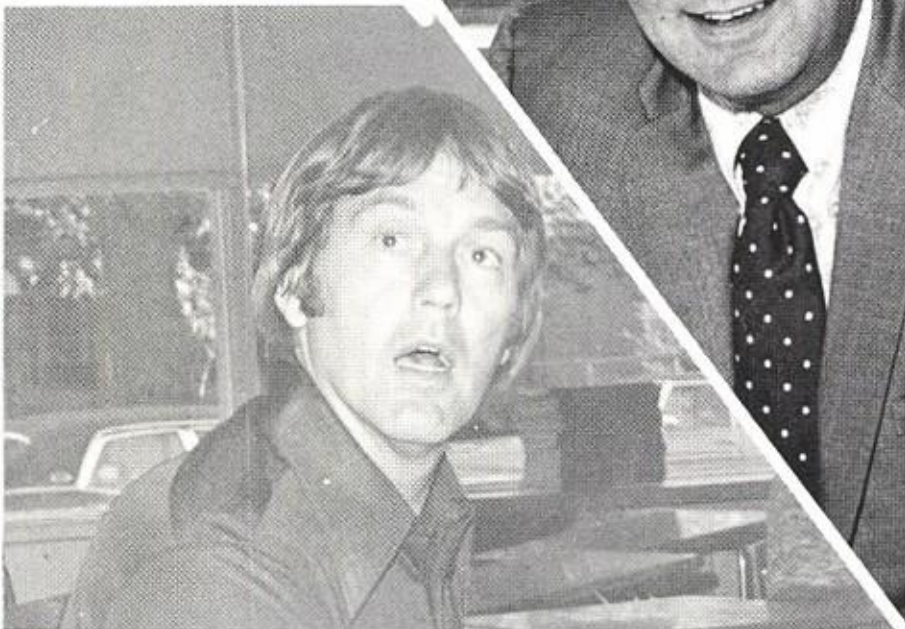

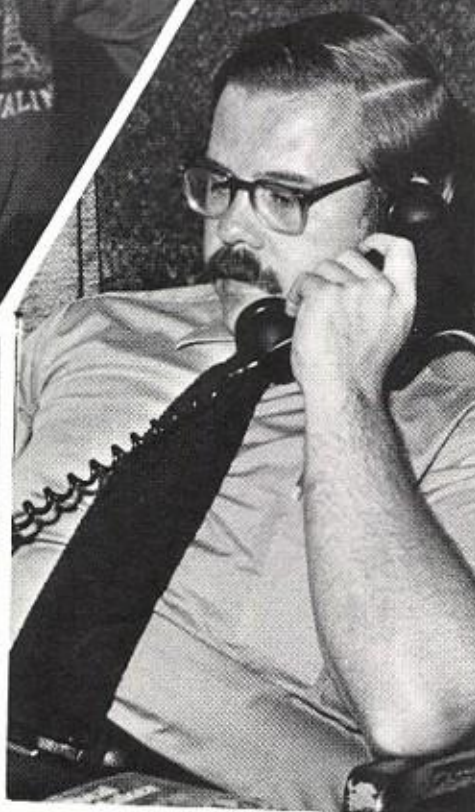

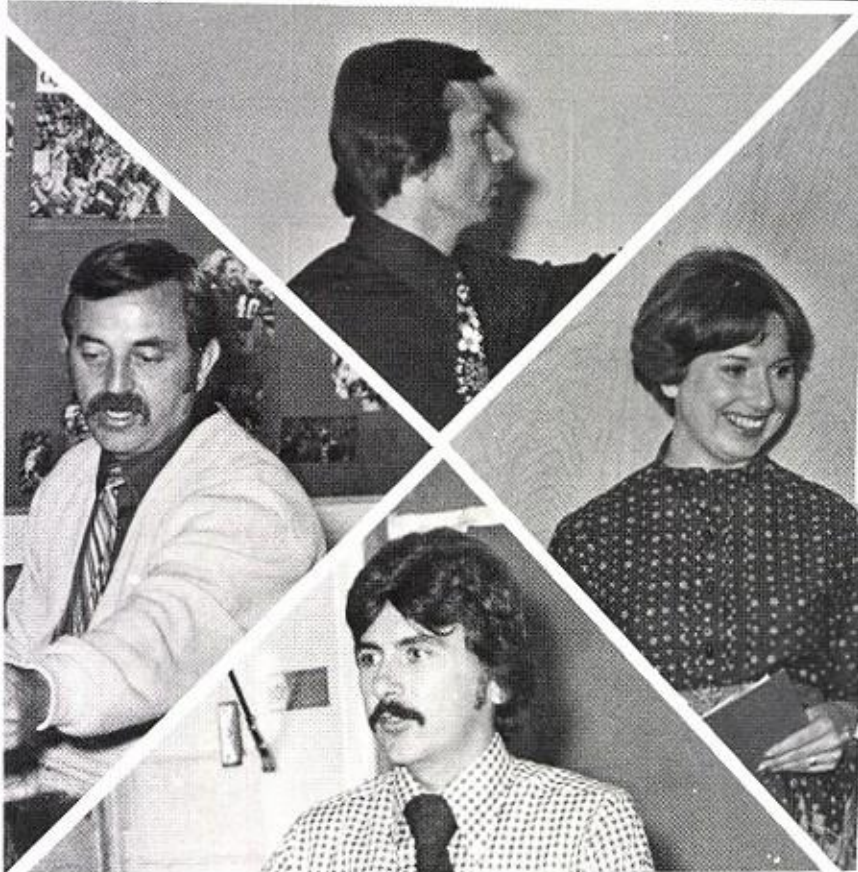

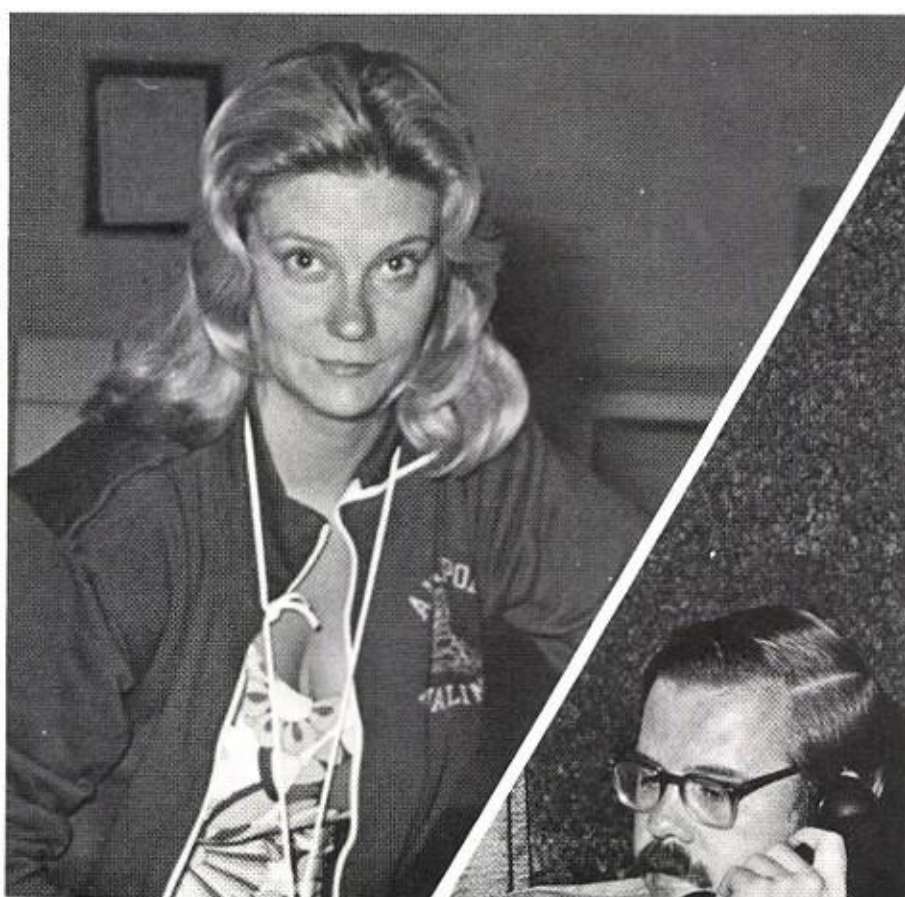

You just call out my name
And you know wherever I am
I'll come running to see you again
Winter, Spring, Summer, or Fall
All you have to do is call
And I'll be there
You've got a friend.

If the sky above you
Grows dark and full of clouds
And that old north wind begins to blow
Keep your head together
And call my name outloud
Soon you'll hear me knocking at your door.

Ain't it good to know that you've got a friend
When people can be so cold
They'll hurt you, and desert you
And take your soul if you let them
Oh, but don't you let them.

Board Stresses Emphasis On Basic Skills

The members of the Board of Education are elected by the citizens of District Seven to provide an educational system for their children. Legally, the Board of Education is responsible for the executive management and administration of Dearborn Heights School District No. 7 and its properties, facilities and personnel. Since the Board members are lay people, they appoint the superintendent of schools to serve as the administrative head of the school system. The Board of Education has directed that emphasis be placed on the instruction of basic skills in the elementary schools.

Enthusiasm Is Evident

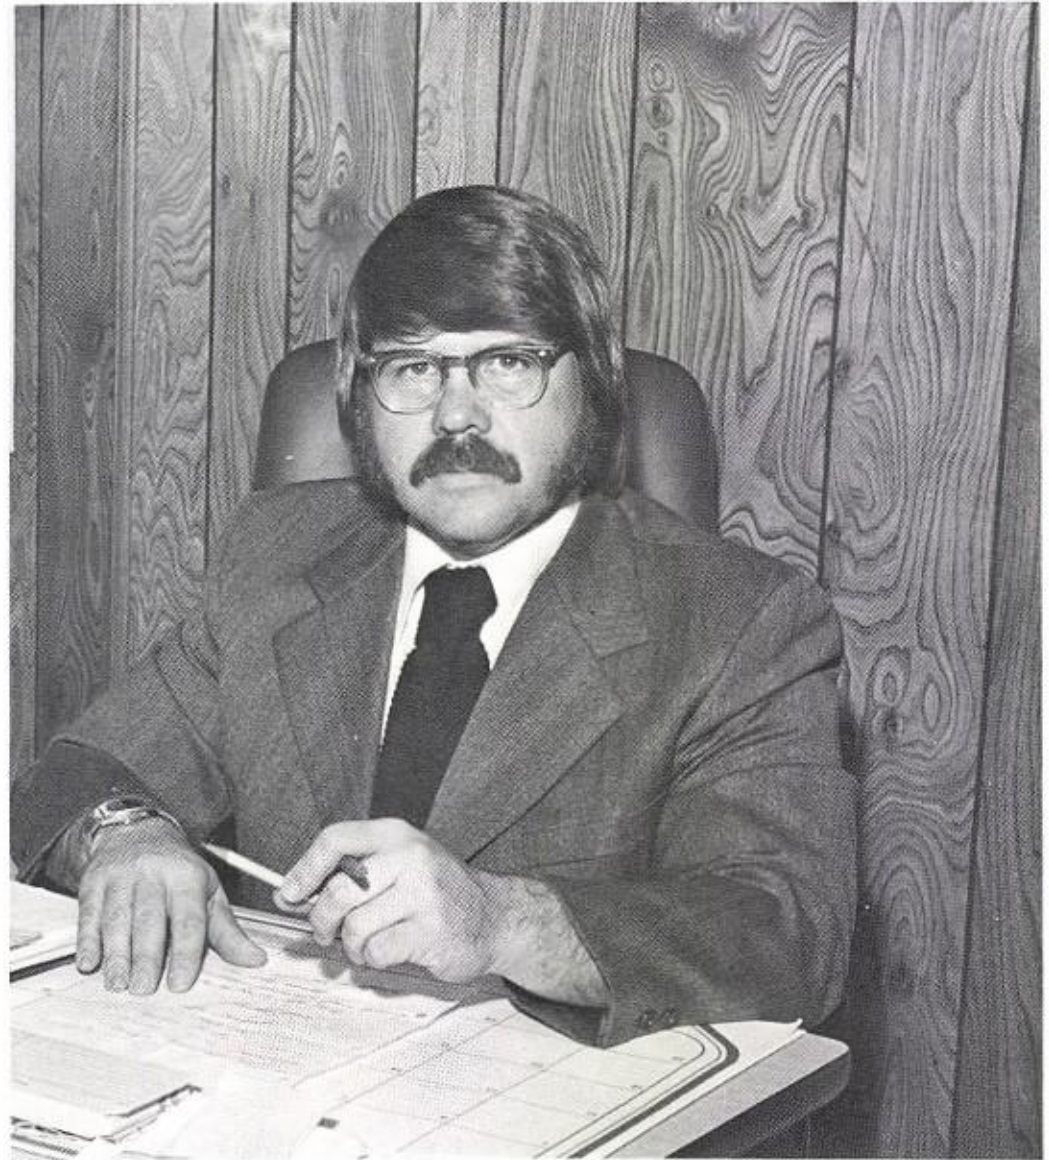

This year can truly be classed as one of the most interesting. A fine spirit has prevailed in the student body and the good name of Annapolis has risen to new heights. In activities and in the classroom this student body has demonstrated that it is constituted of a group of young people who have faith in the future. Their sincere enthusiasm is evidence of the fact that for them, life is an ever unfolding, enriching experience.

Mr. Vogel, formerly an English teacher, is now the new Assistant Principal to the Administrative staff.

Mr. Martin Sviland, who oversees all Administrative matters, prepares for another day.

Mr. Terry Strome is in charge of student affairs and computer scanning for the district.

Mrs. Shirley Baumgartner types a letter dictated by Mr. Mike Vogel, our assistant principal.

Mrs. Carol Helka, Mr. Vogel's secretary, answers one of many calls from an absent student.

Mrs. Vivian Moore smiles with relief after balancing the books for the various clubs.

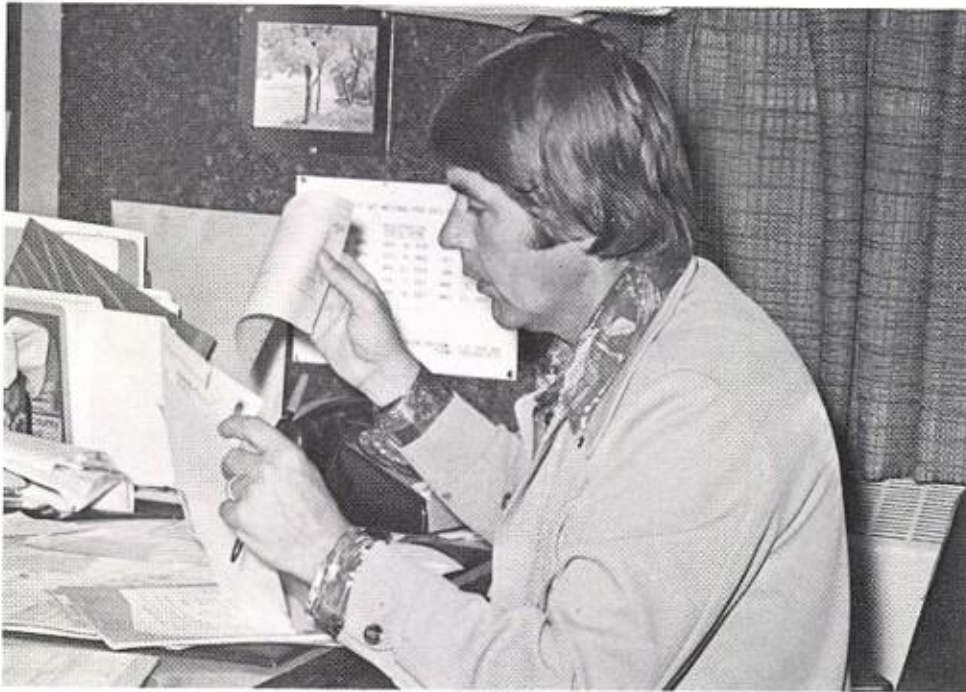

Ms. Shirlee Cook taking time from her busy schedule to assist a parent with a homebound assignment.

Counselors Are Always On The Job

This past year has brought about quite a few changes in the counseling department. With the retirement of Mrs. Ottlinger, Mr. Pachy was added as a part-time counselor; Mr. Machnee became a full-time counselor and Mrs. Cook is now the counseling secretary.

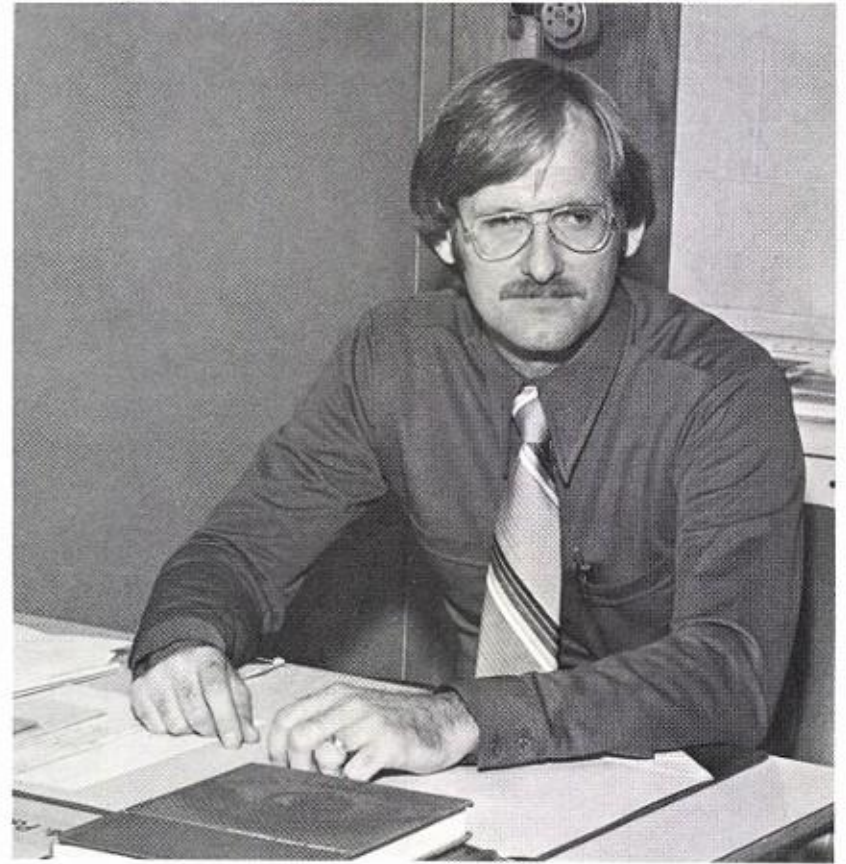

The counselors do other things besides just counseling the students. Coordinating Honors Assembly, ordering occupational information and counseling material, arranging for college representatives to come to our school and arranging for scholarships and financial aid, are just a few of the things the counselors do to assist students in their educational, occupational and personal growth.

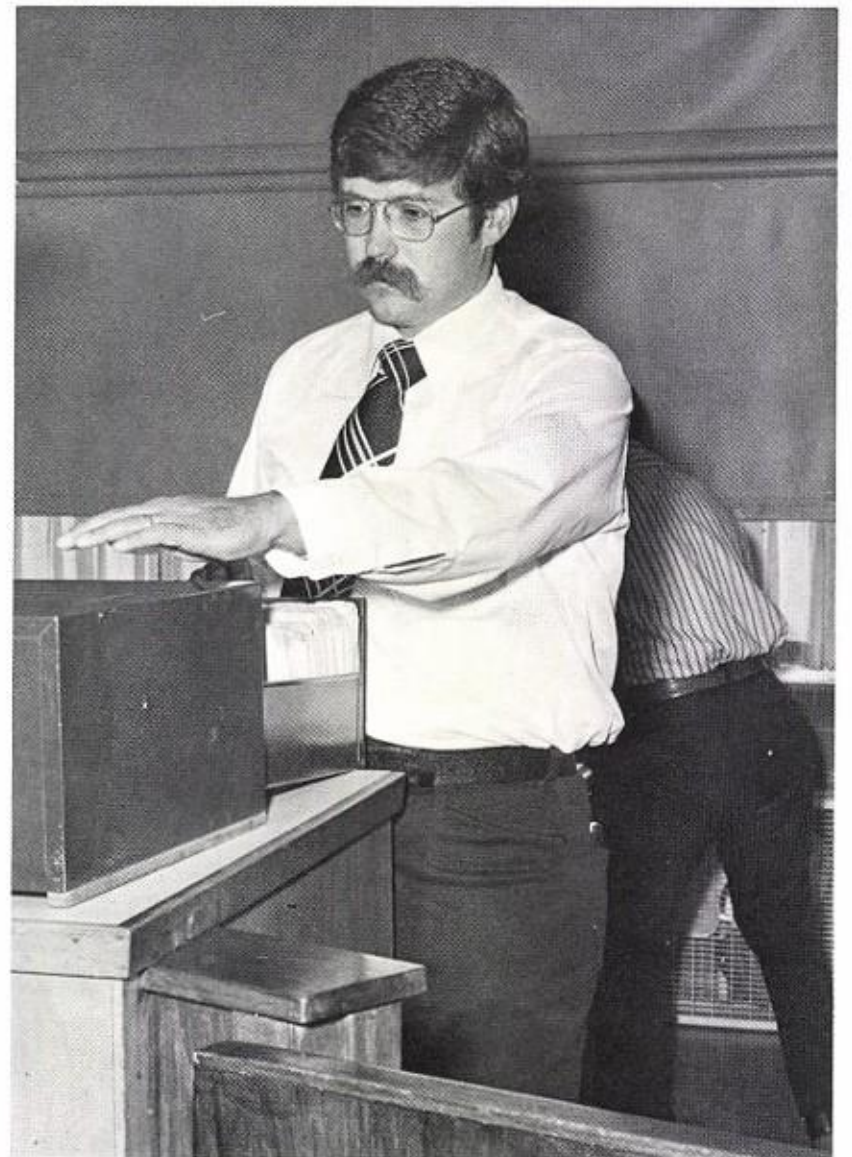

Mr. John Sisson also works as Adult Education sponsor.

Mr. Louis Bortolon advises a student on a college degree.

Mr. Steven Pachy contemplates the year ahead.

Mr. Robert Machnee checks a students' schedule.

Math Stresses The Fundamentals

The mathematics department, headed by Mr. Donald Jeffers, and including Mr. Anthony Scalzi, Mr. Jerry Stapleton and newcomer Mr. Karl Andrews, offers a wide variety of mathematics courses. The needs of every student is met, whether it is basic mathematics training or advanced math, such as geometry and Pre-Calculus.

Classes in mathematics have successfully contributed to the achievements of the student. With the number of classes available to choose from, students can successfully learn principles of math that will be helpful in the years ahead.

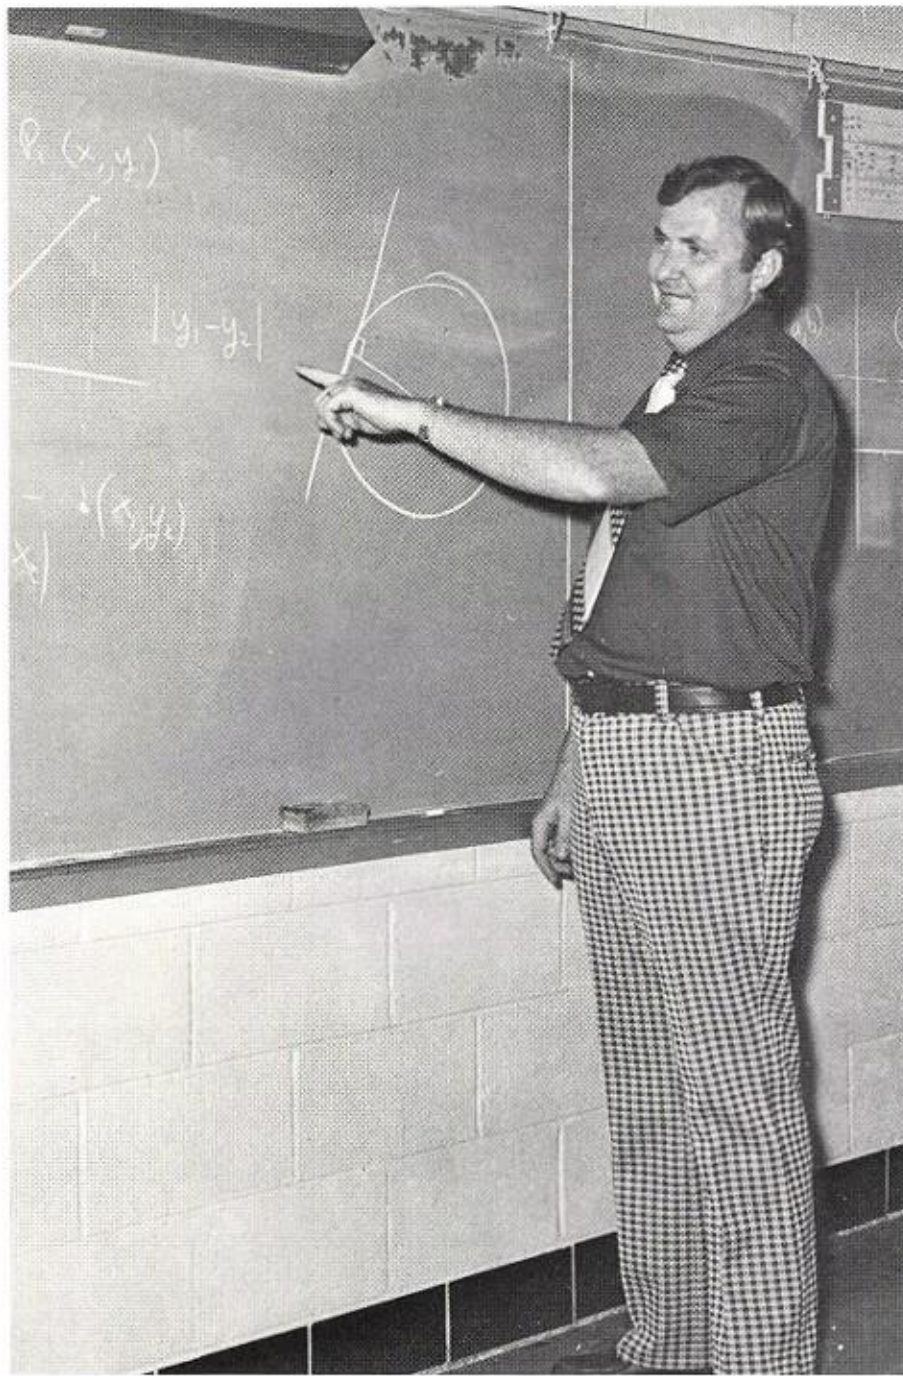

Mr. Jerry Stapleton checks over Olga Apostolovski's work.

Mr. Karl Andrews points out an error to Michelle Walters.

Mr. Anthony Scalzi works out a trig problem with Simone Brom.

Mr. Donald Jeffers explains the basic rules of geometry.

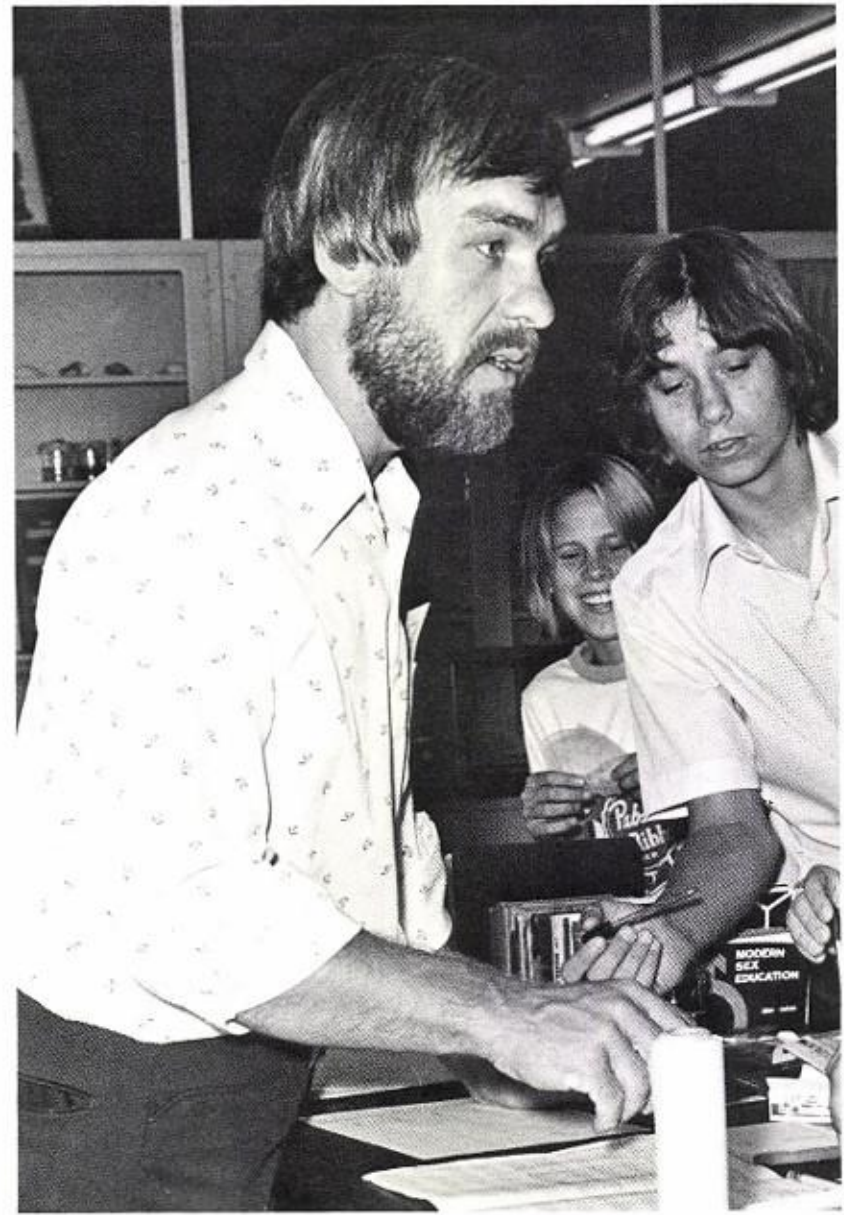

Meeting The Science Goals Of Tomorrow

One of the goals of Science is to instill in the students' mind the importance of his environment on his everyday life. What he does affects everyone. This planet has a certain amount of materials and how man uses them will determine the course he will take in the future.

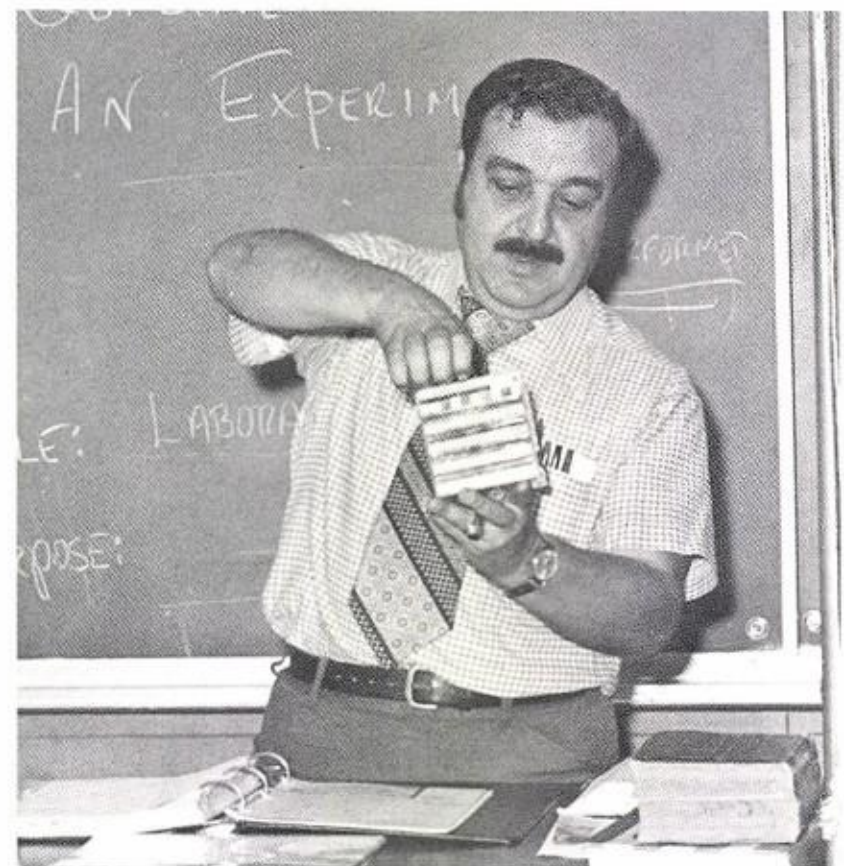

In the science of biology, the student is taught how living things affect his environment, and in chemistry and physics the student is taught how all things are made up and the energy needed to move or change this environment.

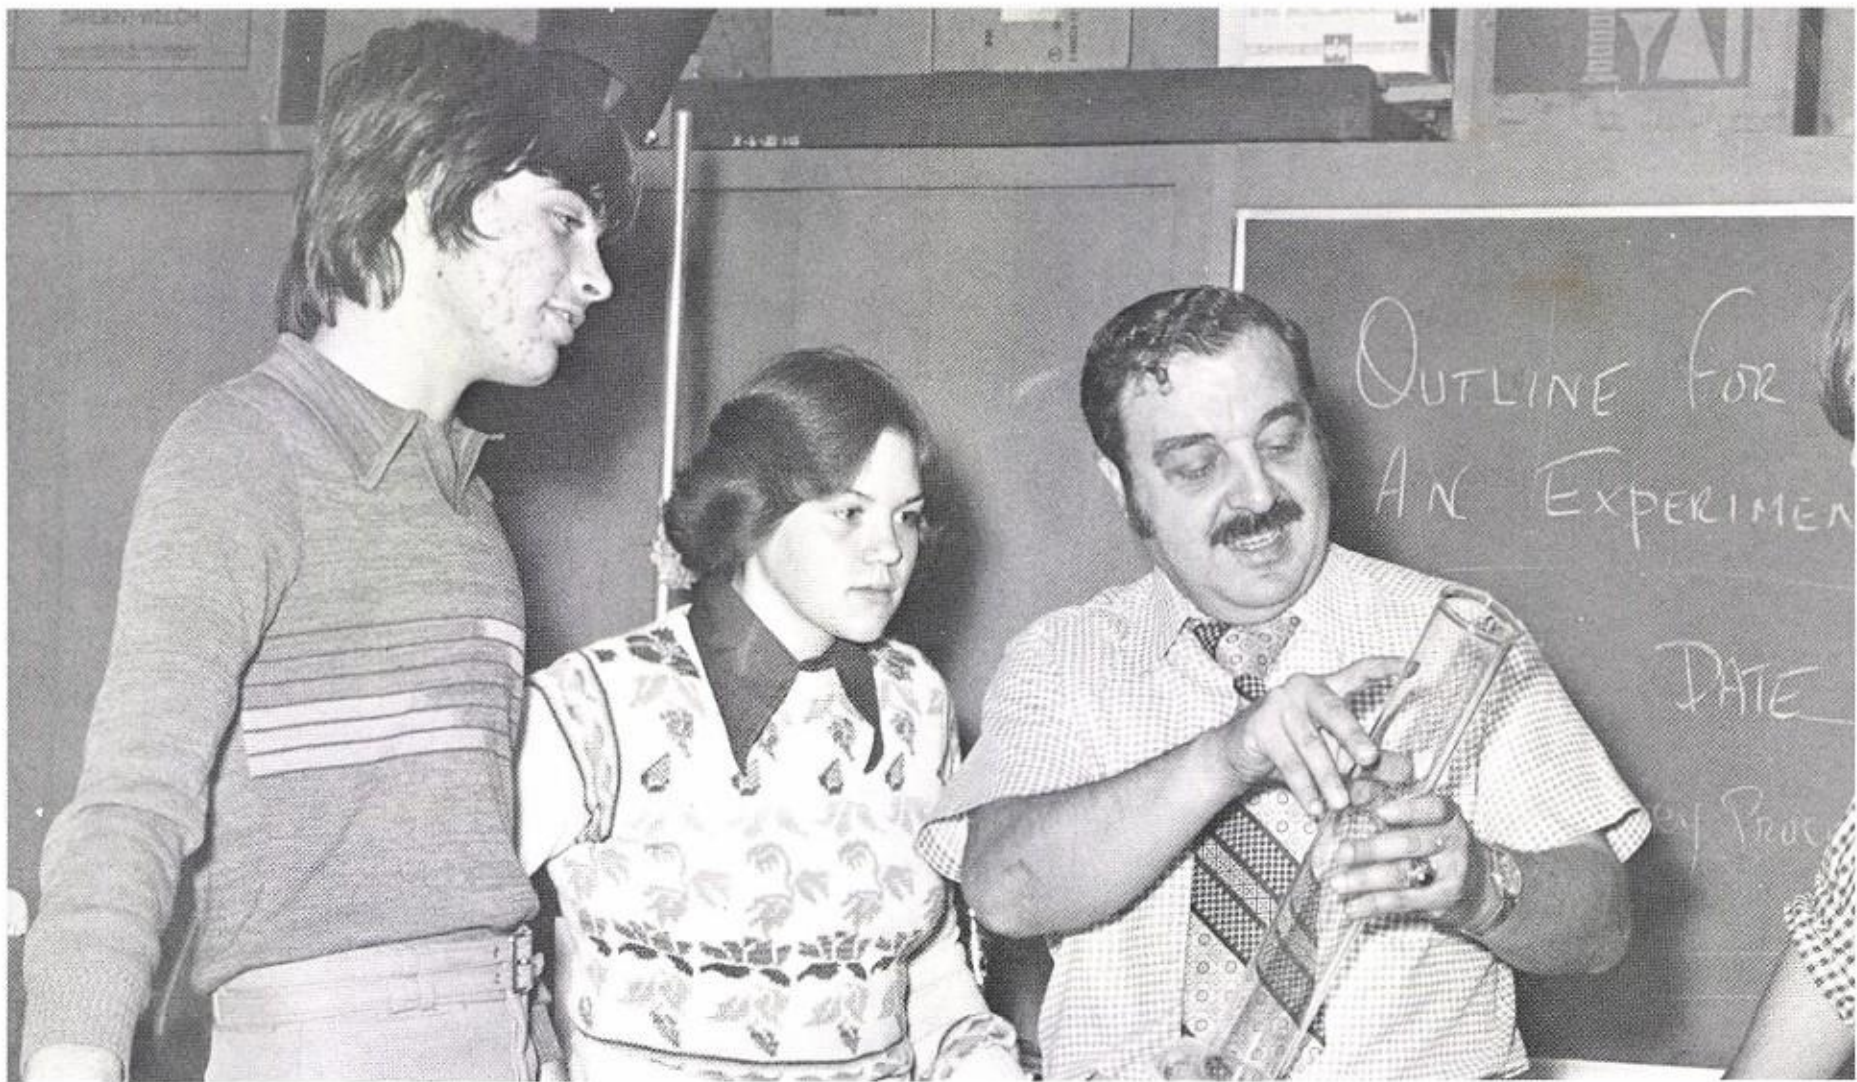

Mr. Kevin Clarke listens attentively while dictating an oral quiz.

Mike Jenkins assists Mr. John Blum in biology class.

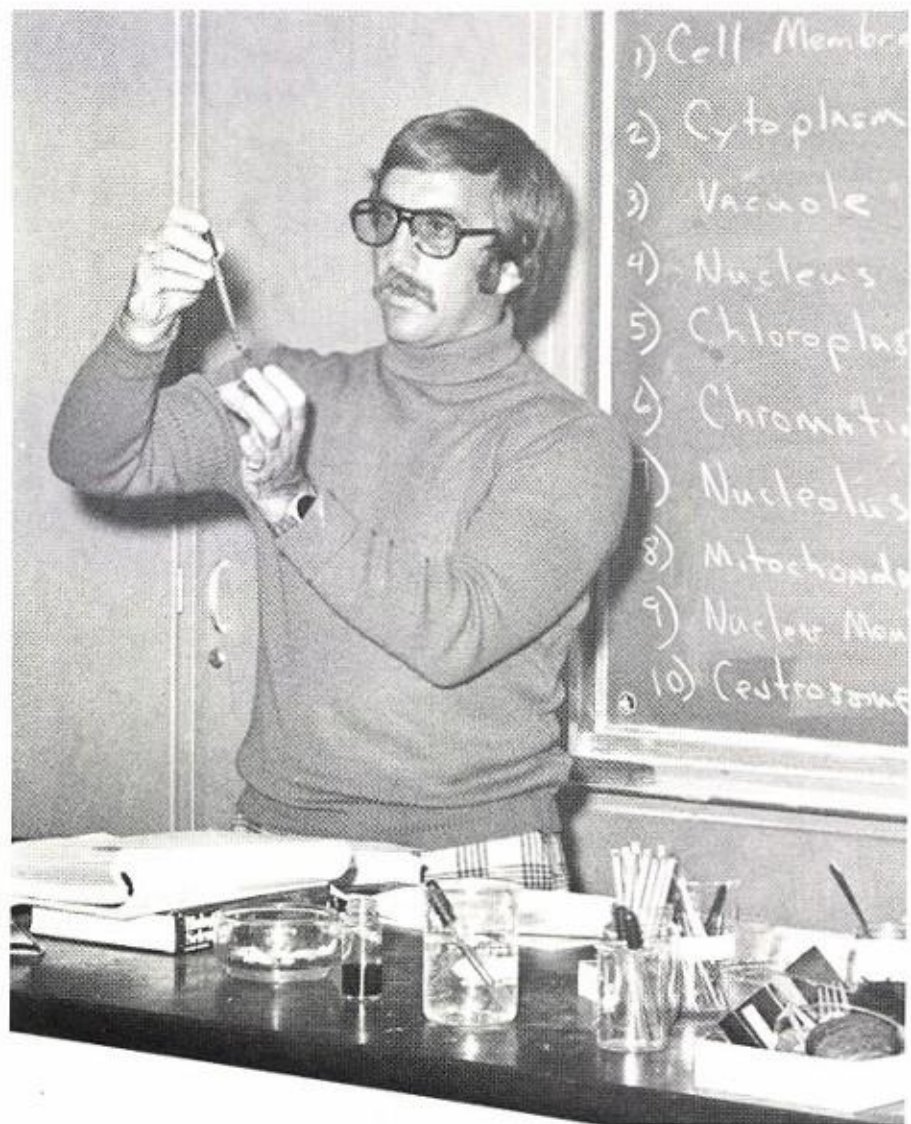

Mr. Frank Lupo explains how many grams are in a liter.

Students Paul Thomas and Bonnie Sheen show interest in learning Physics from Mr. Frank Lupo.

Mr. Chuck Soule prepares a Biology field study lesson.

Mr. James Bryan demonstrates the proper way to stain slides.

A Turn Toward Coeducational Gym

The Physical Education department has started a new trend this year. All elective gym classes are coeducational. Because of this fact, the courses available have been improved. There is more of a variety in the gym classes this year, with the addition of golf, speed ball and proper bowling facilities.

The goal of this department is to maintain physical fitness, and to teach students the fundamentals of certain sports in hopes that they will carry over in the students' leisure time activities. Next year the department is planning for all classes to be coeducational. Male and female students participating together has worked out well.

Mrs. Newingham facing off with Brenda Birdsall and Debbie Axiak.

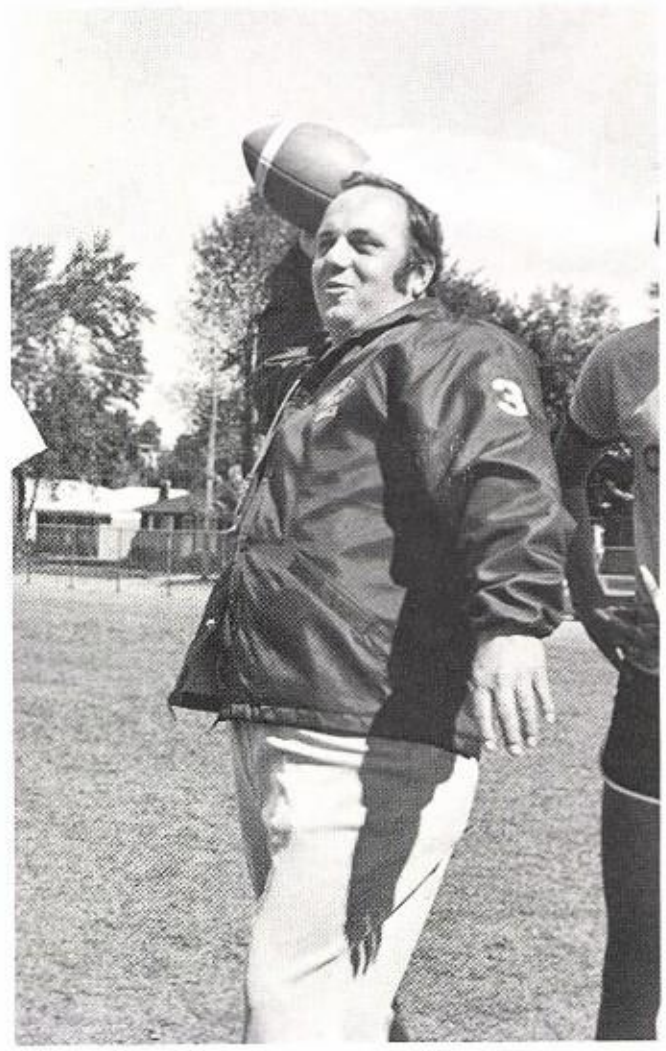

Mrs. Joyce Dick encourages her field hockey students.

Mrs. Blum explains the fundamentals of goaltending.

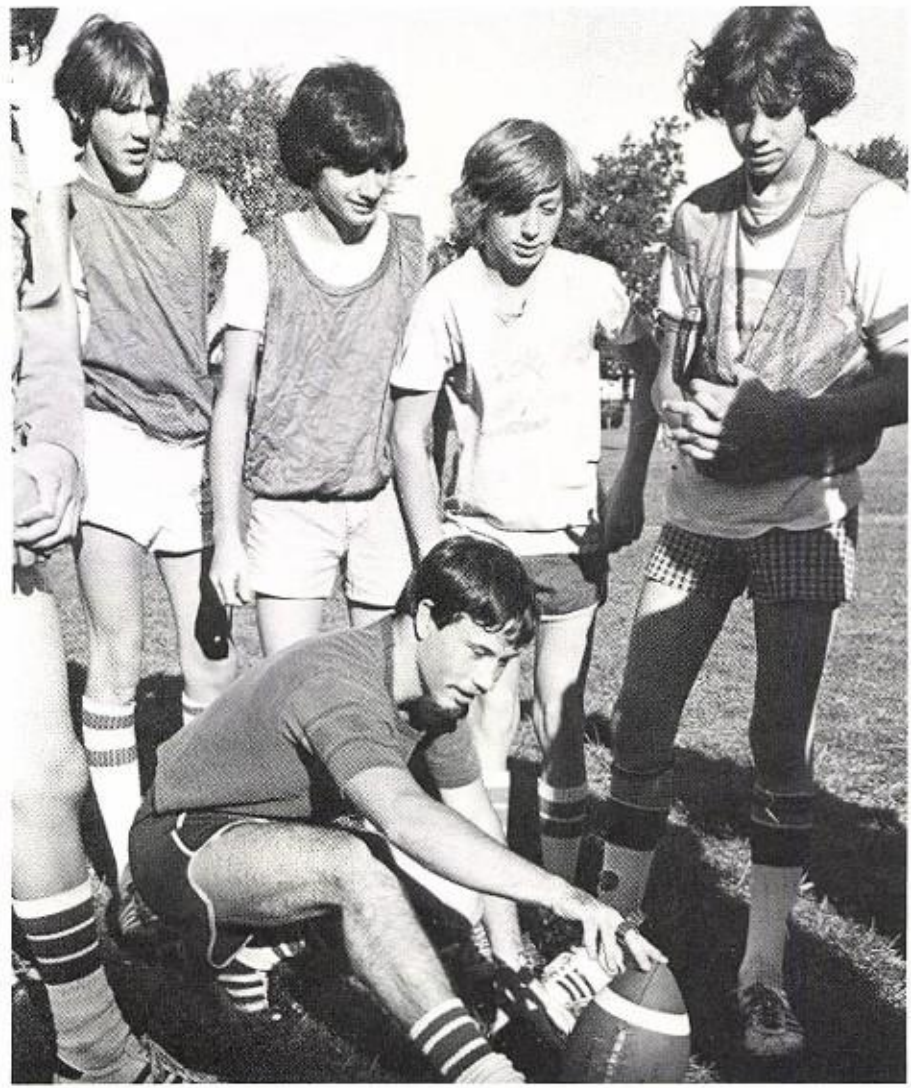

Mr. Michael Bird relives his former football coaching career, as he calls the play in gym class.

Mr. John O'Droski stating that keeping your arm high is correct form in throwing.

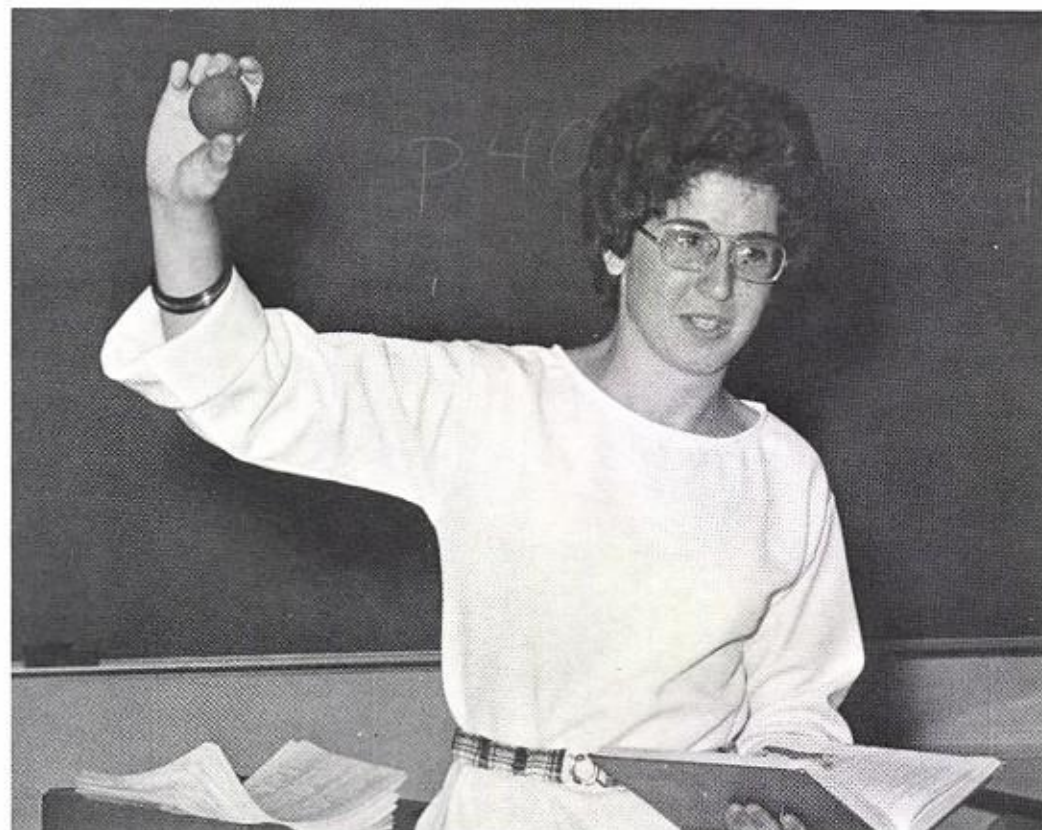

Mr. Ronald Bales, Athletic Director, stressing that grip is a crucial factor in throwing a football.

Bob McCartney, Gym Assistant, showing proper position of the ball in placekicking.

Expanding Toward, On The Job Training

The Home Economics Department has made some changes this year. Career Planning was introduced which helps one decide what field might be of challenge to them. Consumer Education explores independent living and Health Careers helps out in ones' medical background; these courses are offered to both sexes. Clothing, Foods, and Needlecraft helps one use leisure time wisely. Nurses Aid is one class where girls attend O. W. Best learning to become nurses and nurses' aides. Cosmetology is also where girls go to a special school for training to learn how to take care of their hair and skin. These classes are offered to help students prepare for their future jobs. The main goal of Home Economics is to prepare students for the outside world.

Miss Patricia Sullivan explains why nutrition is important.

Diane Selders, Mrs. Kris Levesque, and Kay Smith look at cut-out patterns in Interior Decorating.

Mrs. Adrienne Connors says, "This is the way to set a table."

Julie Lafferty, Diane Summers, and Chris Griffith look on as Mrs. Eileen Drake cites aids to proper child rearing.

Mrs. Evelyn Stomp explains career planning to Jim Padlo.

Brenda Kitchen learns the basic skills of sewing from Mrs. Jackie Delekta.

Office And Clerical Skills Developed

The Business Department is constantly striving to meet the needs of the students in regard to new courses. For the 1976-1977 school year, the two courses that have attracted the most students are typing and accounting.

An anticipated drop in high school enrollment may make it necessary to offer some business courses on an every other year plan. In the past and present the business department has been very fortunate in having good equipment for its office practice classes.

This year there was not a two hour office practice block. In the future the business department hopes to have one.

Mr. Ed Miazgowiec shows Jessie Whitney how to figure accounting problems.

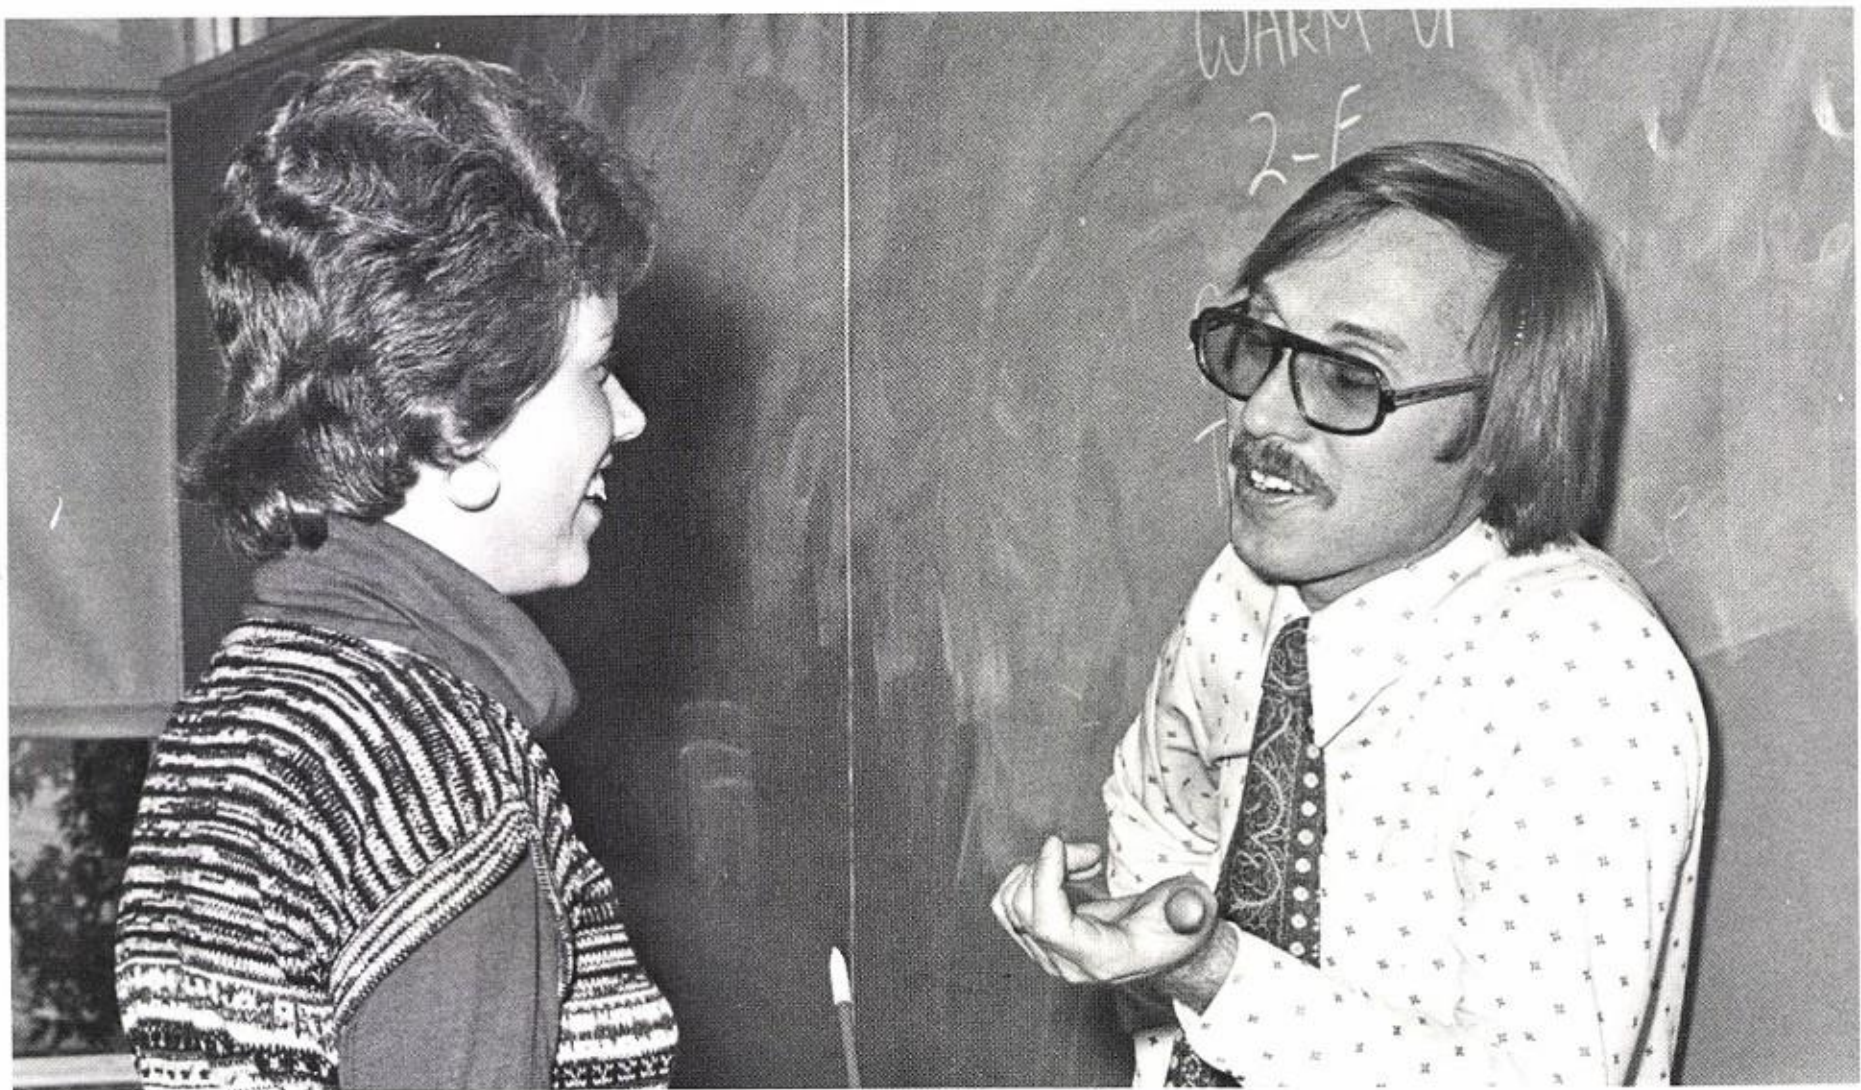

Mr. Ronald Wrublewski dictates a memorandum to Heather Dzuibek.

Mrs. Sandra Resczyk dictates to her typing class.

Mrs. Adelia Damphousse dictates a lengthy typing assignment to her shorthand class.

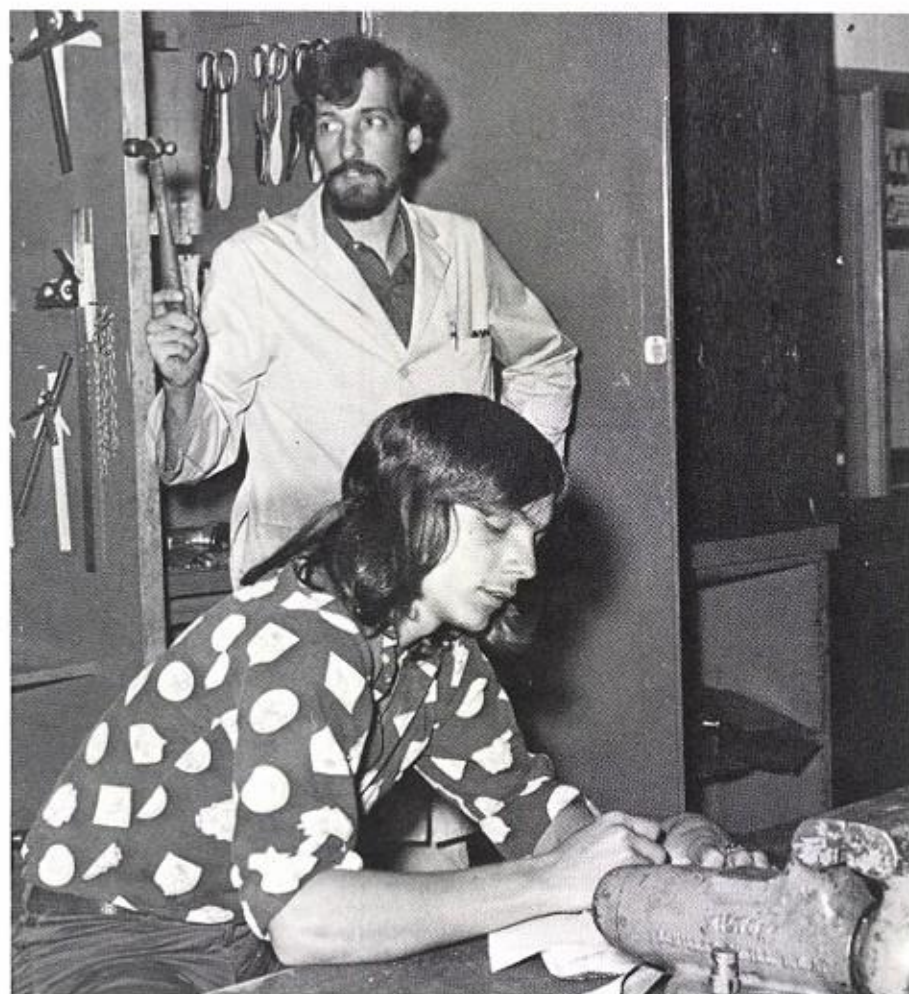

Mr. Al Helner explains specific duties to Carrie Patrick about her job.

Expanding Toward More Diverse Skills

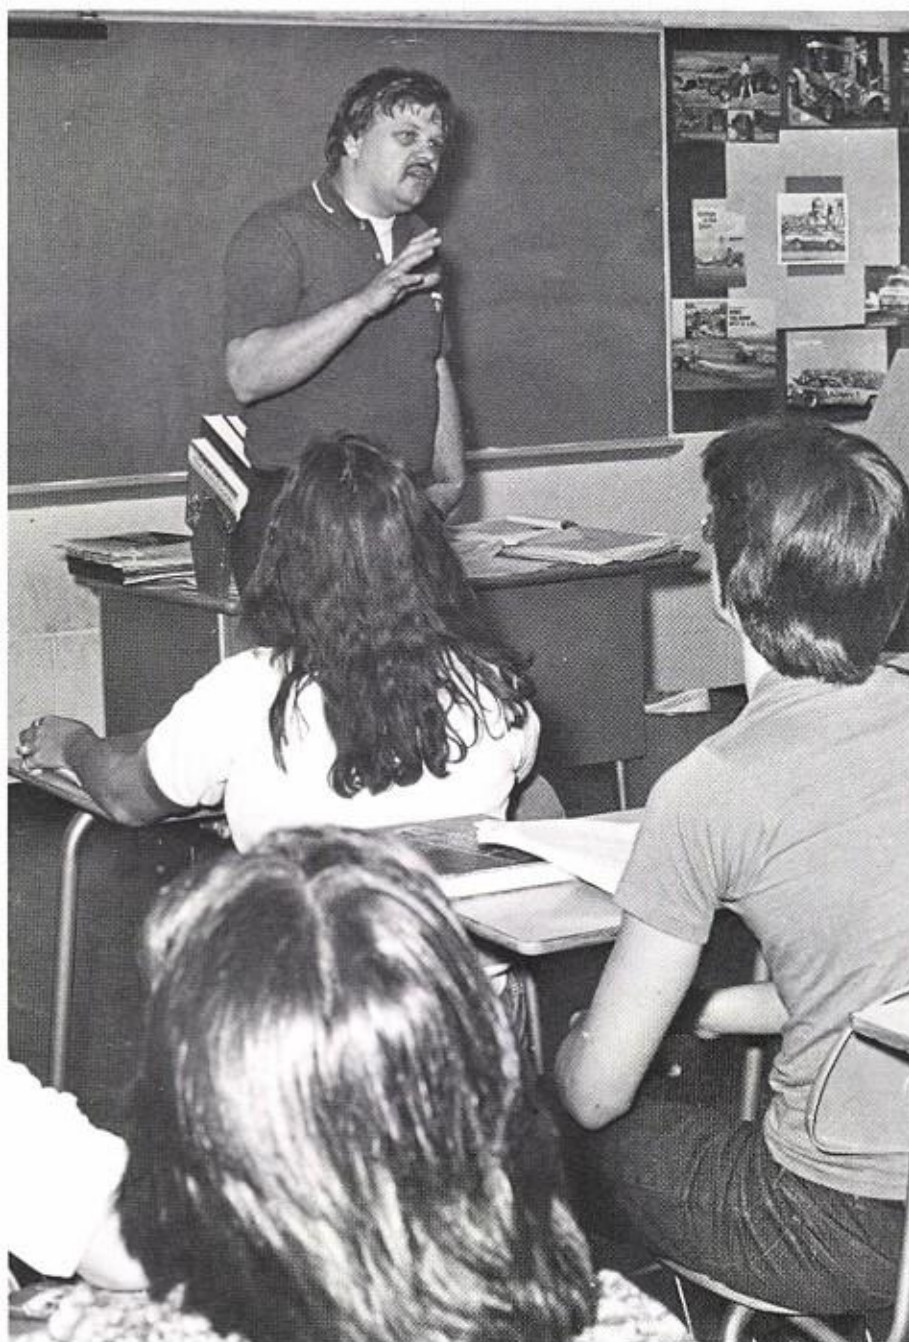

The main objective is to provide our students with skills and knowledge to enter a given trade or industry.

In the last three years the I. V. E. department has made many changes to update our department. To list a few, new and safer equipment has been added, curriculums have been updated, and new classes and two hour blocks have been adopted. A lot of time has also been spent in adopting new safety procedures.

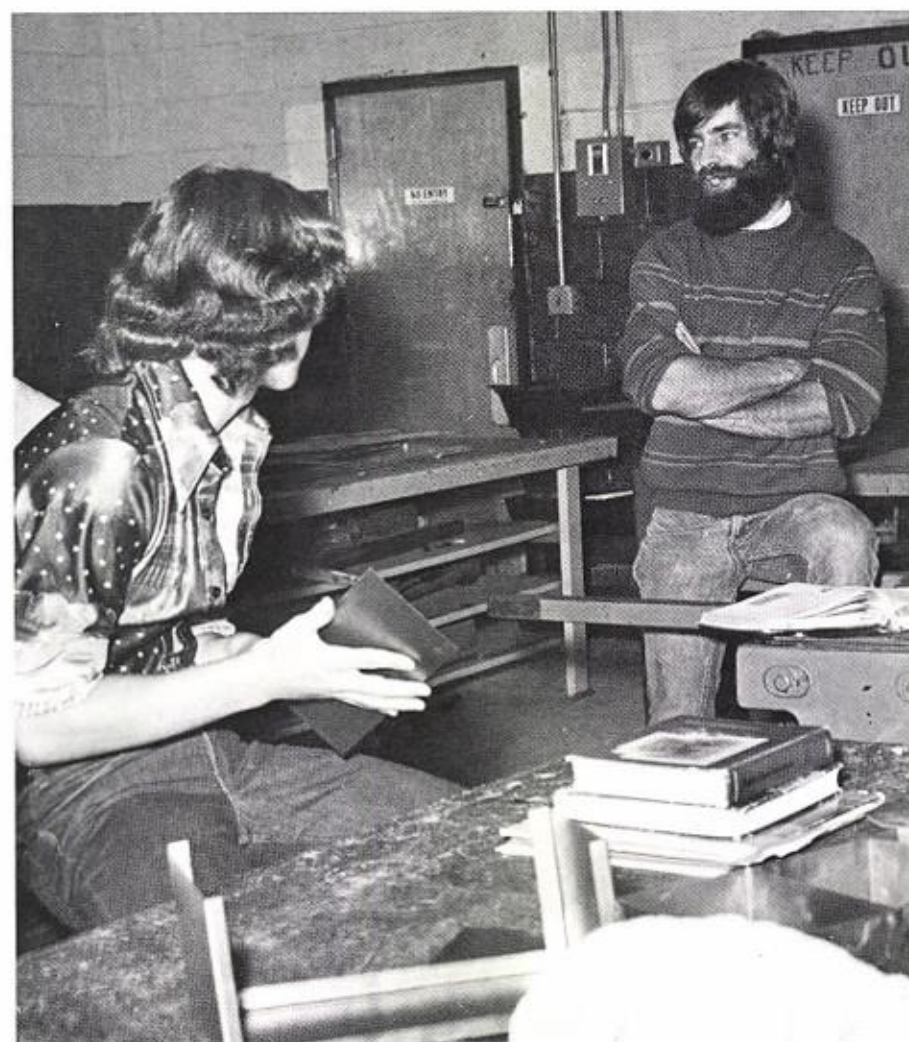

Through enrollment and completion of our industrial education program students can bridge the gap from school to industry making a wise career choice which fits their abilities, aptitudes and interests.

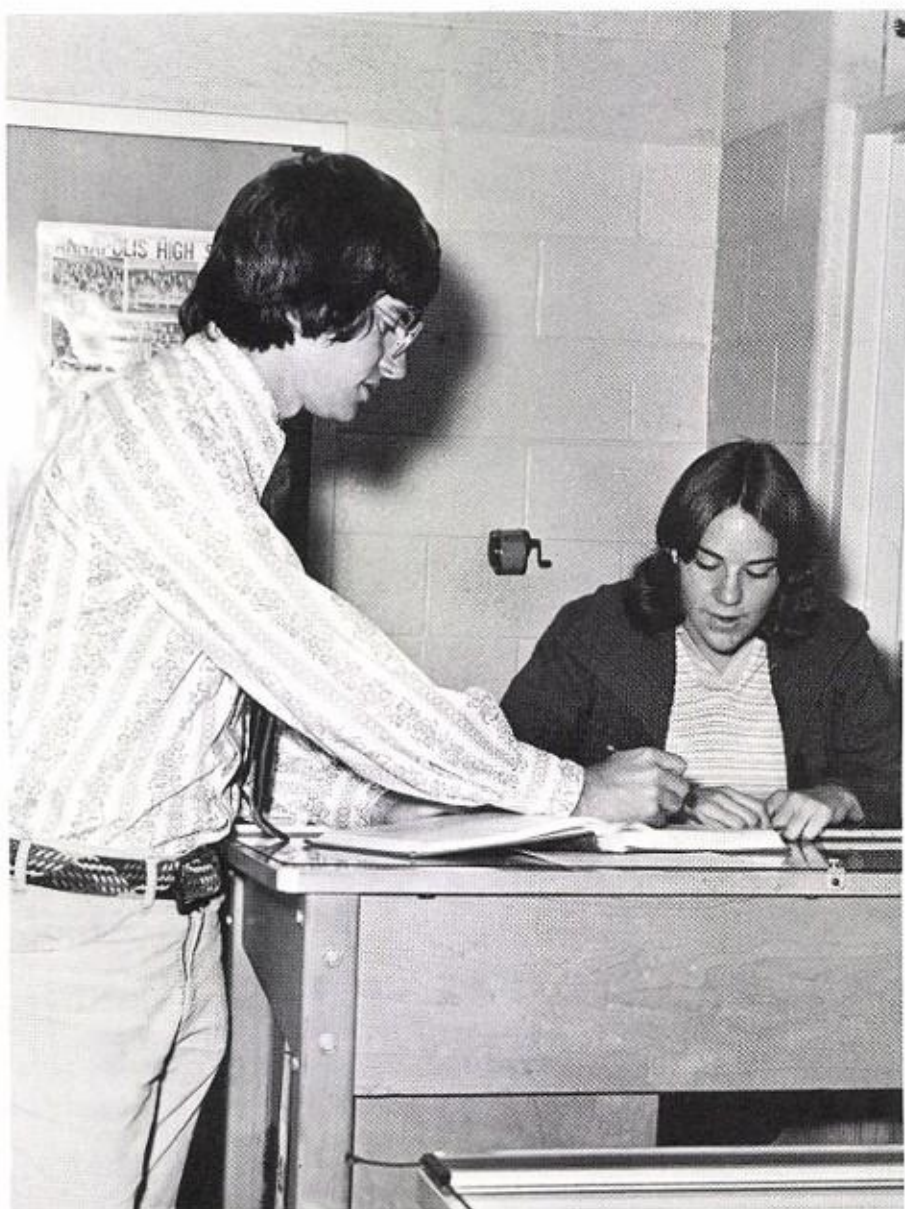

Mr. Dave Langdon gives oral quiz on identification of tools.

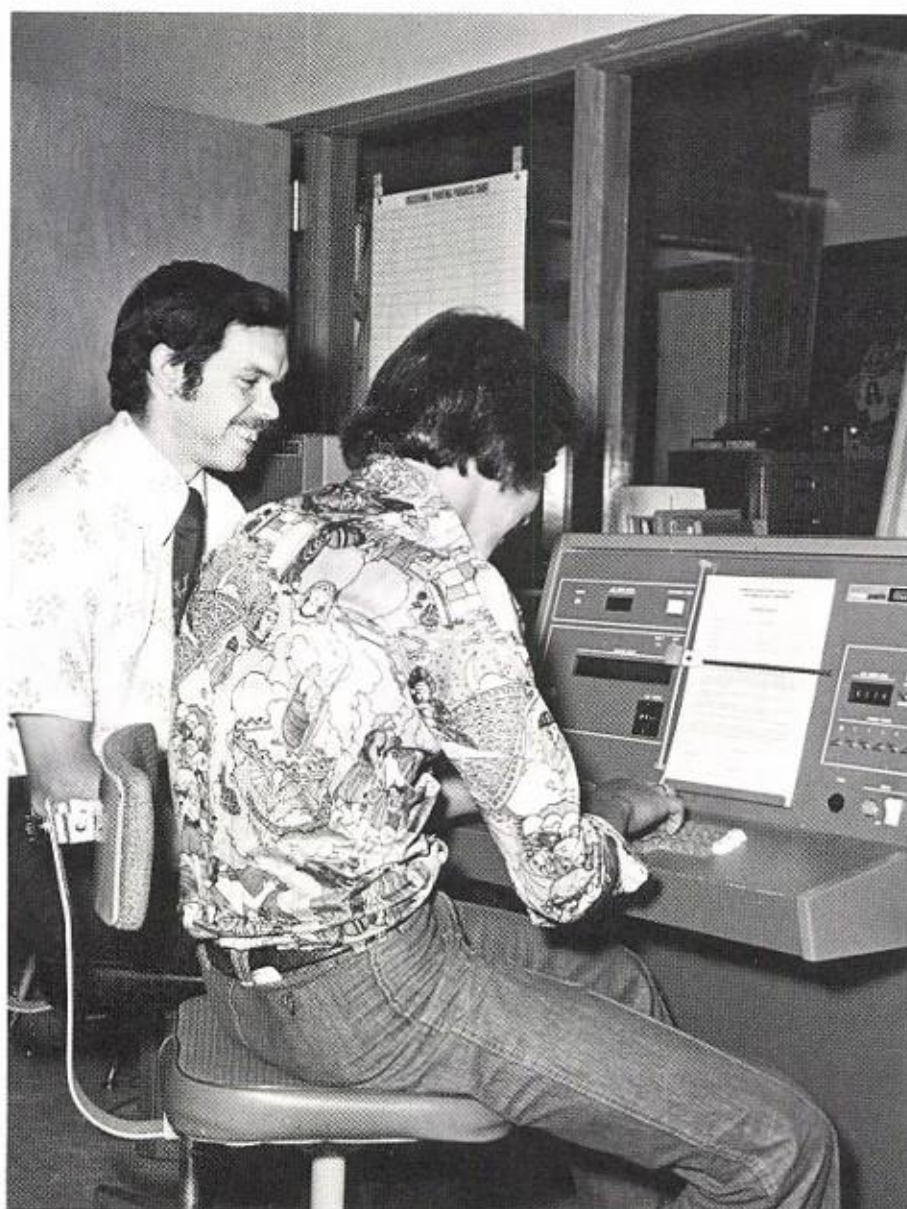

Mr. Dennis Patrick talks about the ratio of air-fuel mixture.

Mr. Blake Logue lectures on how to cut sheet metal.

Mr. Ken Caldwell, a new face, helps a junior, Denise Dolinski.

Mr. Bill Dyda assisting Neal Miesmer on the new copuwriter.

Mr. John Borovsky and students' eyes are fixed on Junior Ken Sullivan as he attempts to adjust valves in Auto 3 and 4.

Mr. Larry Root shows new students how to read a volt meter.

Mr. Jerry Allen assists Allen Kohlmeier in silkscreening.

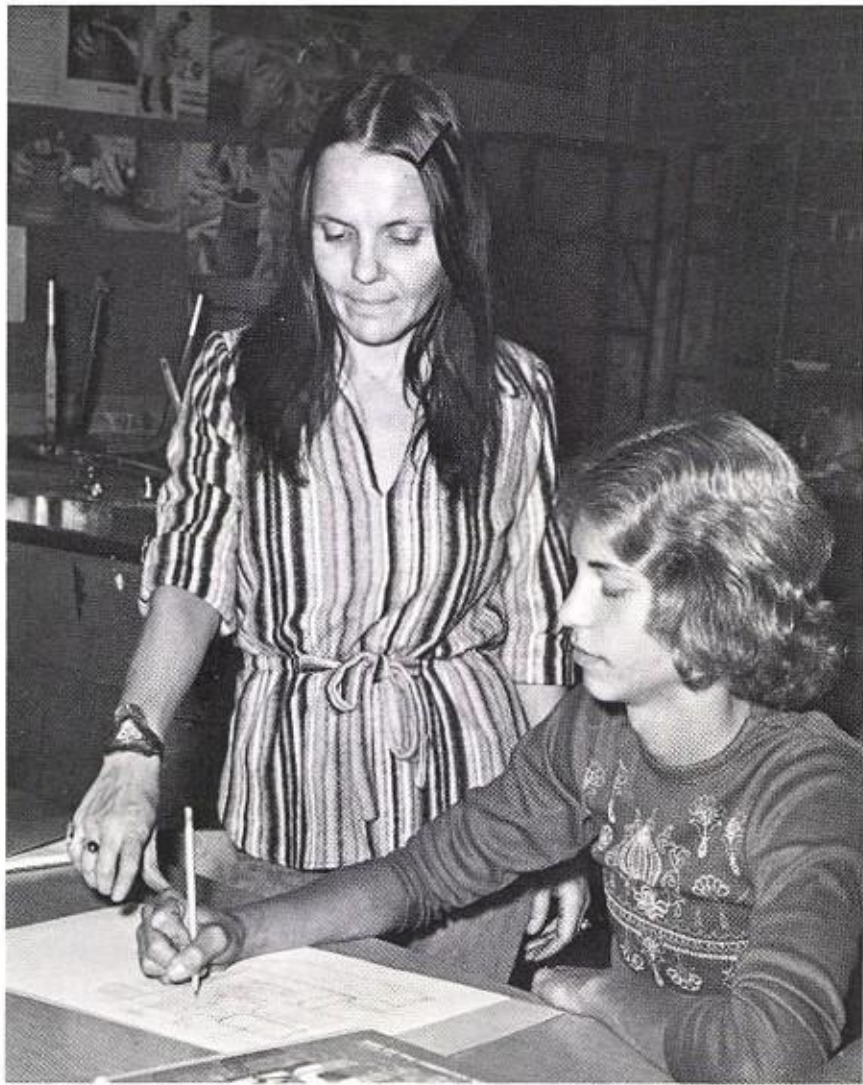

Mr. Terry McDonald helps Tony Kramarz with oblique drawing.

Mr. Dan Boase shows students the proper way to time a car.

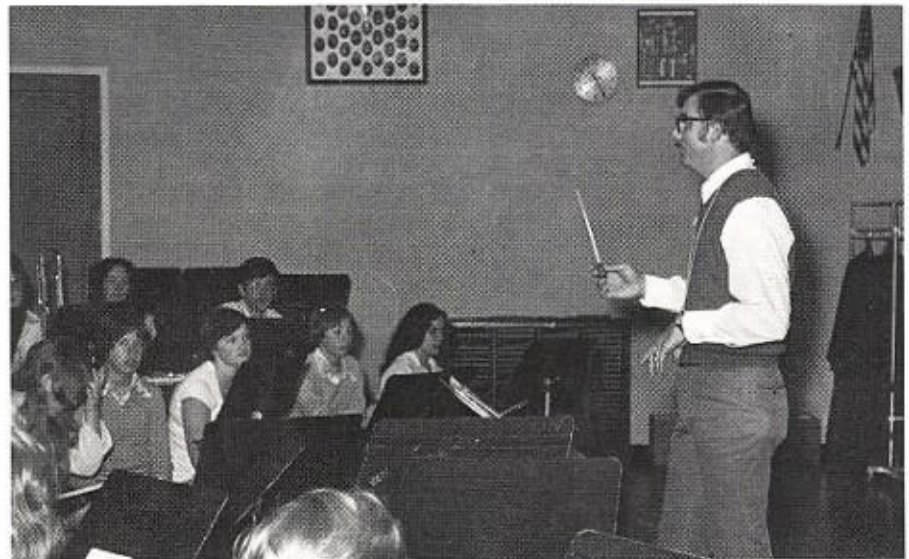

Thoughts Are Created In Humanity.

Mrs. Carol Bourassa shows the basic skills of drawing.

The 1976 Fine Arts Program has only one Art teacher, Mrs. Carol Bourassa. She teaches three beginning classes and two advanced classes.

The Music Department is headed by Mr. Vincent Annichini. Our choir teacher is a new member Mrs. Patricia Birdsall, who ably directed the annual Christmas Program. Both Mr. Annichini and Mrs. Birdsall teach at other schools in our district.

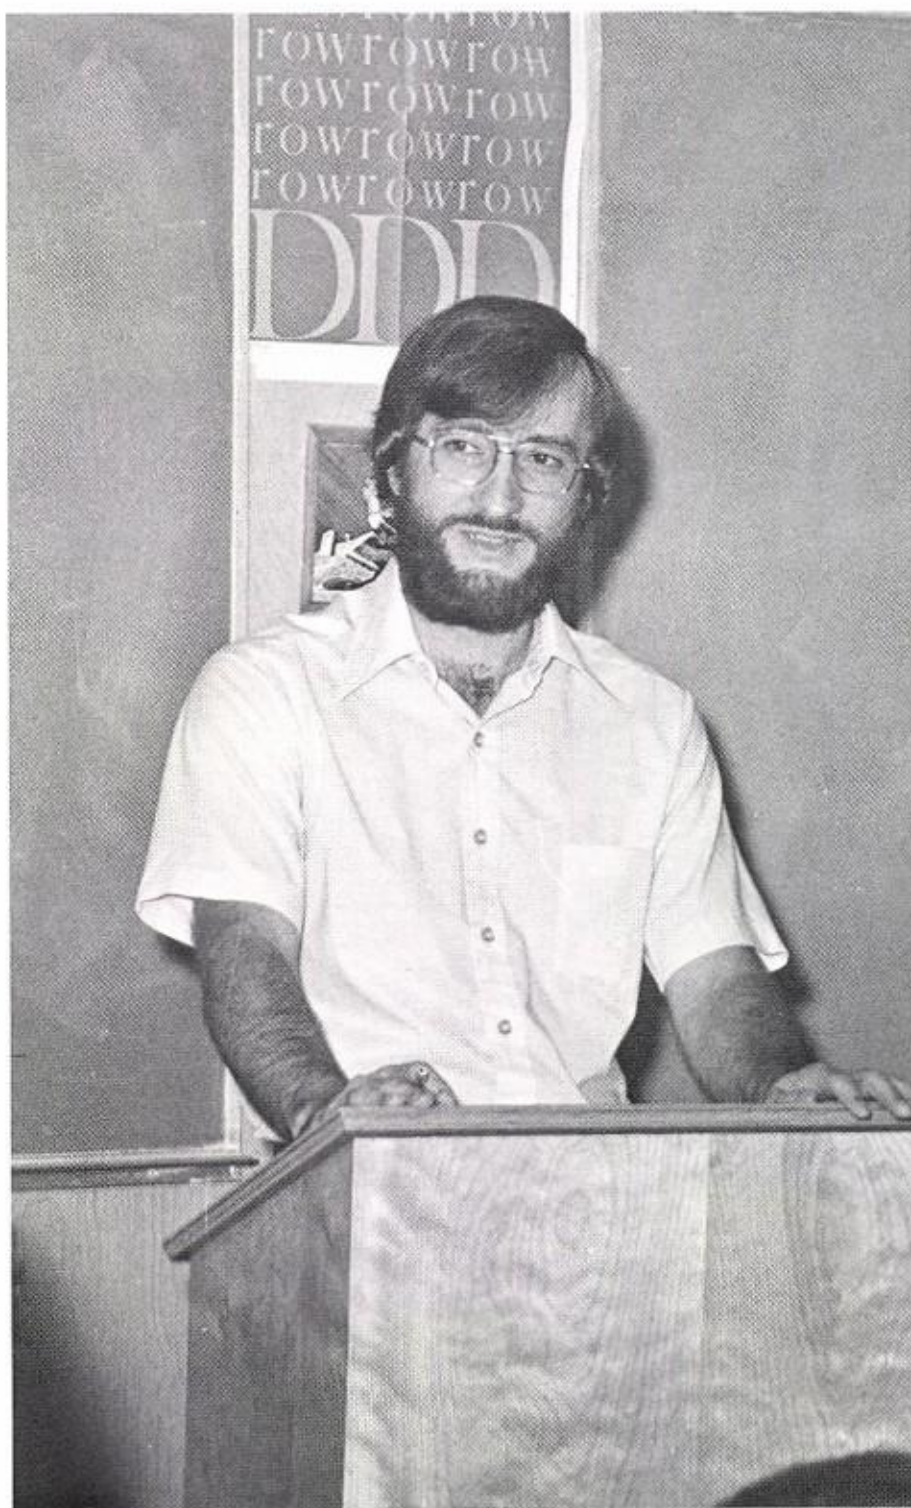

Mr. Vincent Annichini directs the beginning band.

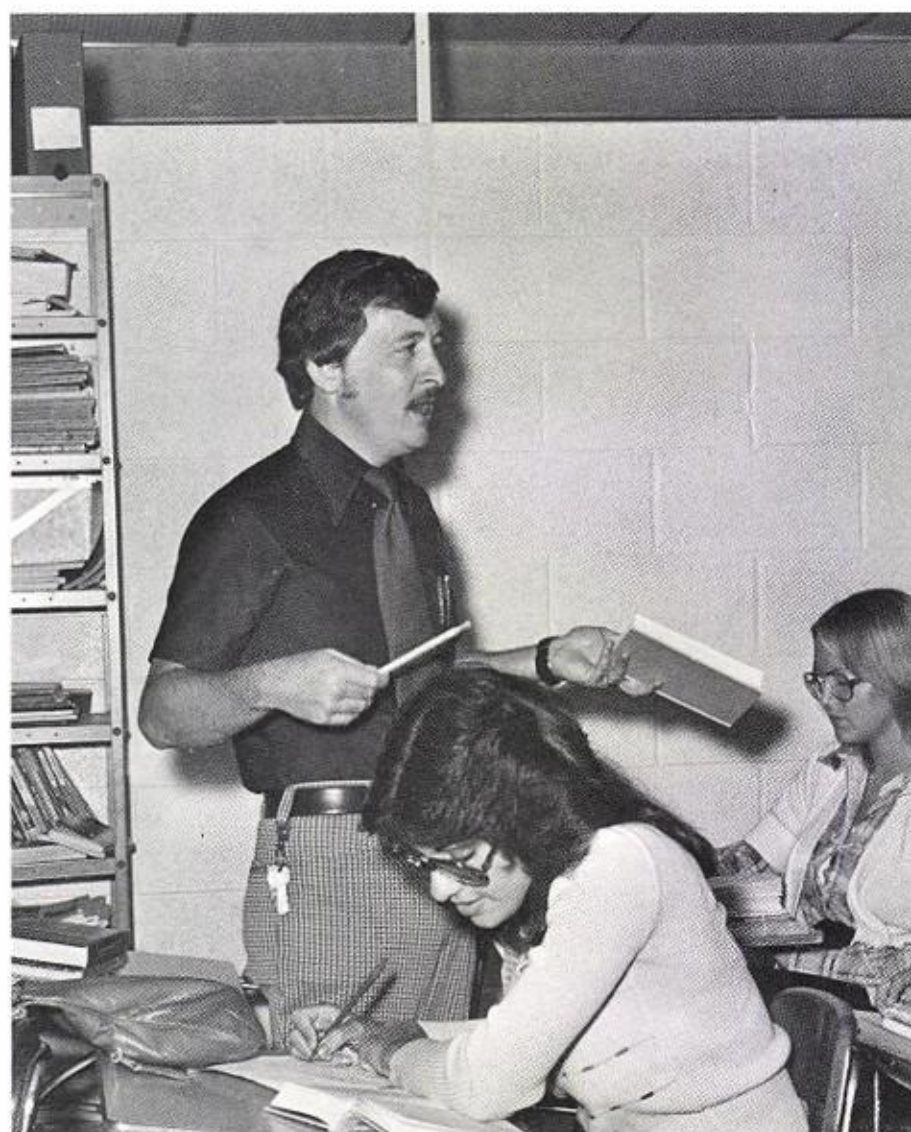

Mrs. Patricia Birdsall joins talented students in a rehearsal for the choir Christmas concert.

Revising Curriculum For The Future

The key word in the English Department for the past several years has been REVISION, curriculum revision, that is. Diligently the staff has deleted from, added to, or generally remolded the course offered in language and literature. Revision will continue to be a priority as the teachers strive to make courses meet the desires of the students, recognize and advance skills in the fundamental areas of reading, writing, and speaking; and reflect the changes in students and student population. "We're not getting older; we're getting better."

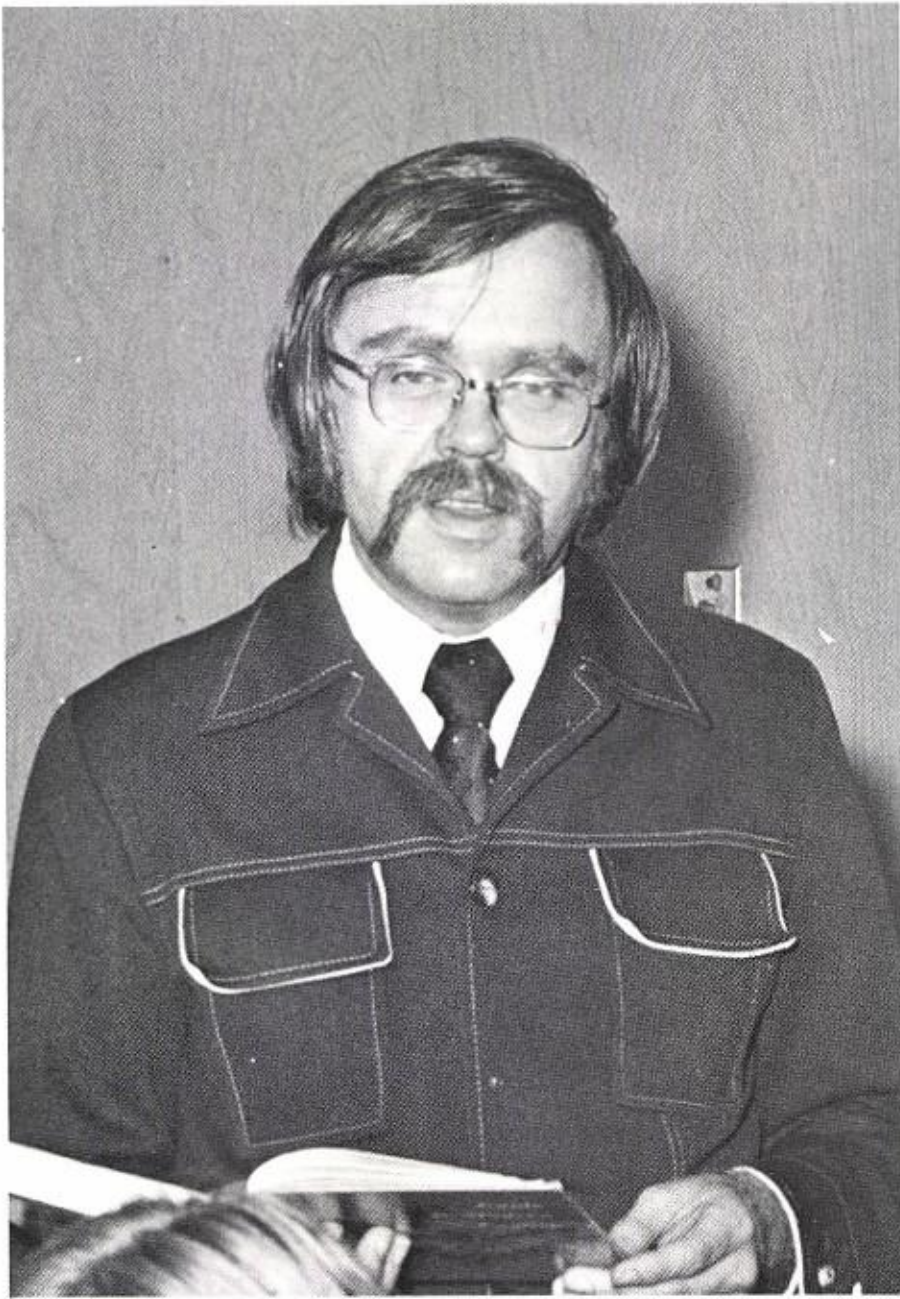

Mr. Colin Curtis prepares to address his literature class.

Mr. Gerald Radus speaks on how to compose a composition.

Mr. Darryl Goncharoff is a retired football coach; advisor of Yearbook Class and Student Council Sponsor.

Mr. William Grant enjoys teaching the English Language Class.

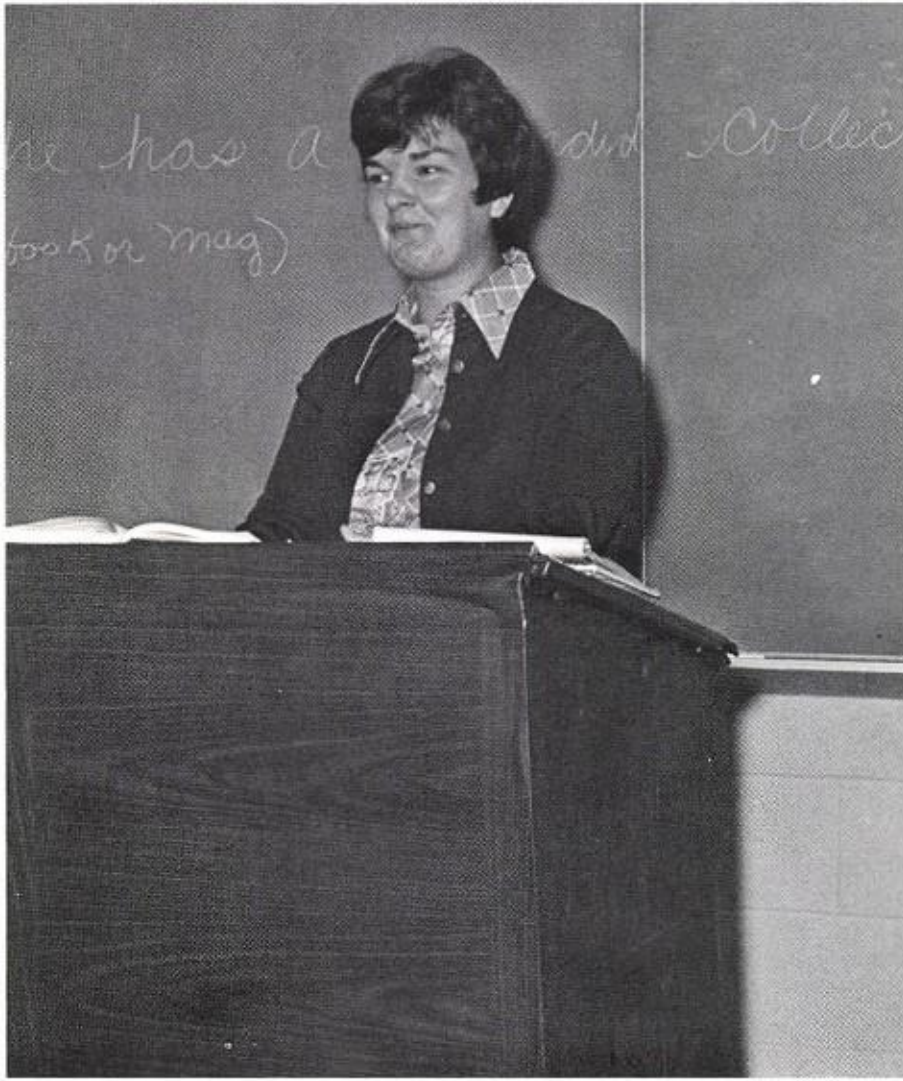

Mr. Bob Nanni stresses how important gestures are in speaking.

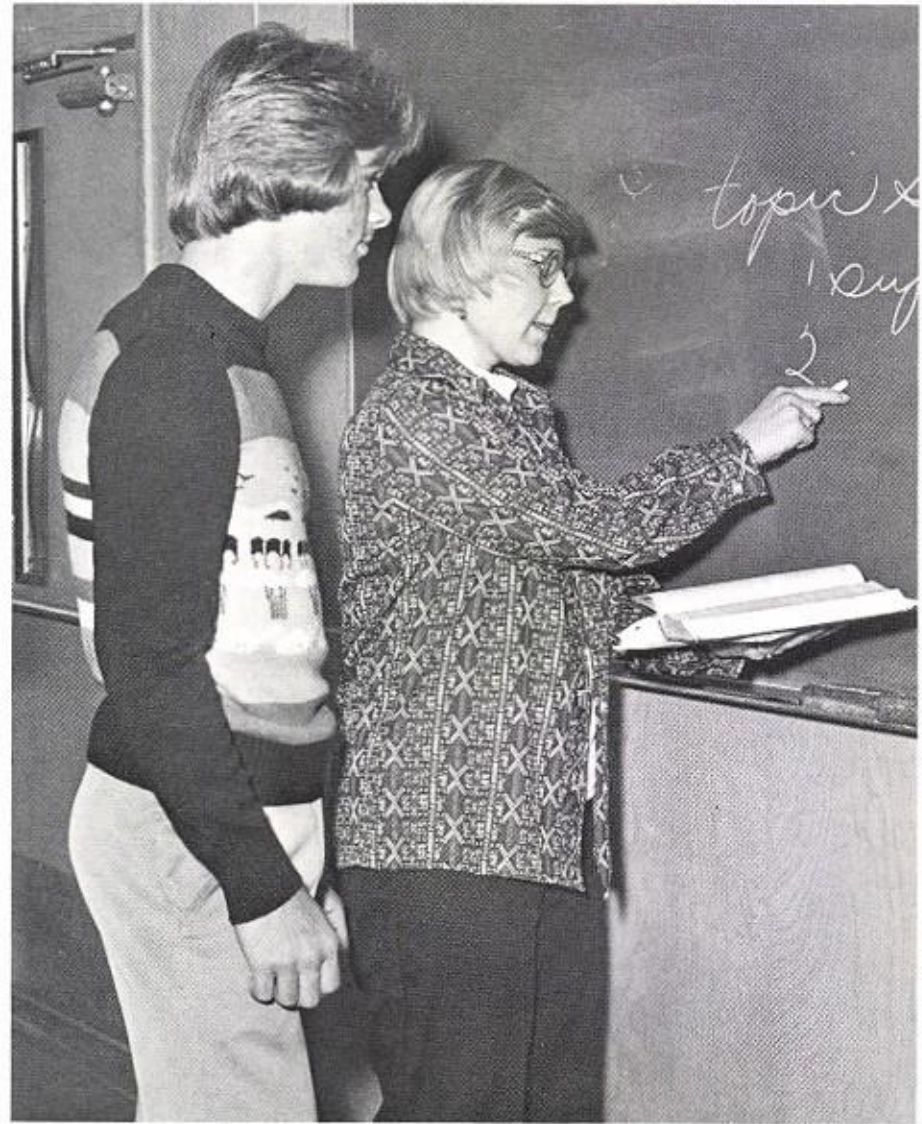

Mr. Steve Pachy lends a helping hand to Bob Wint by explaining the elements of a short story.

Aiming For Better Communications

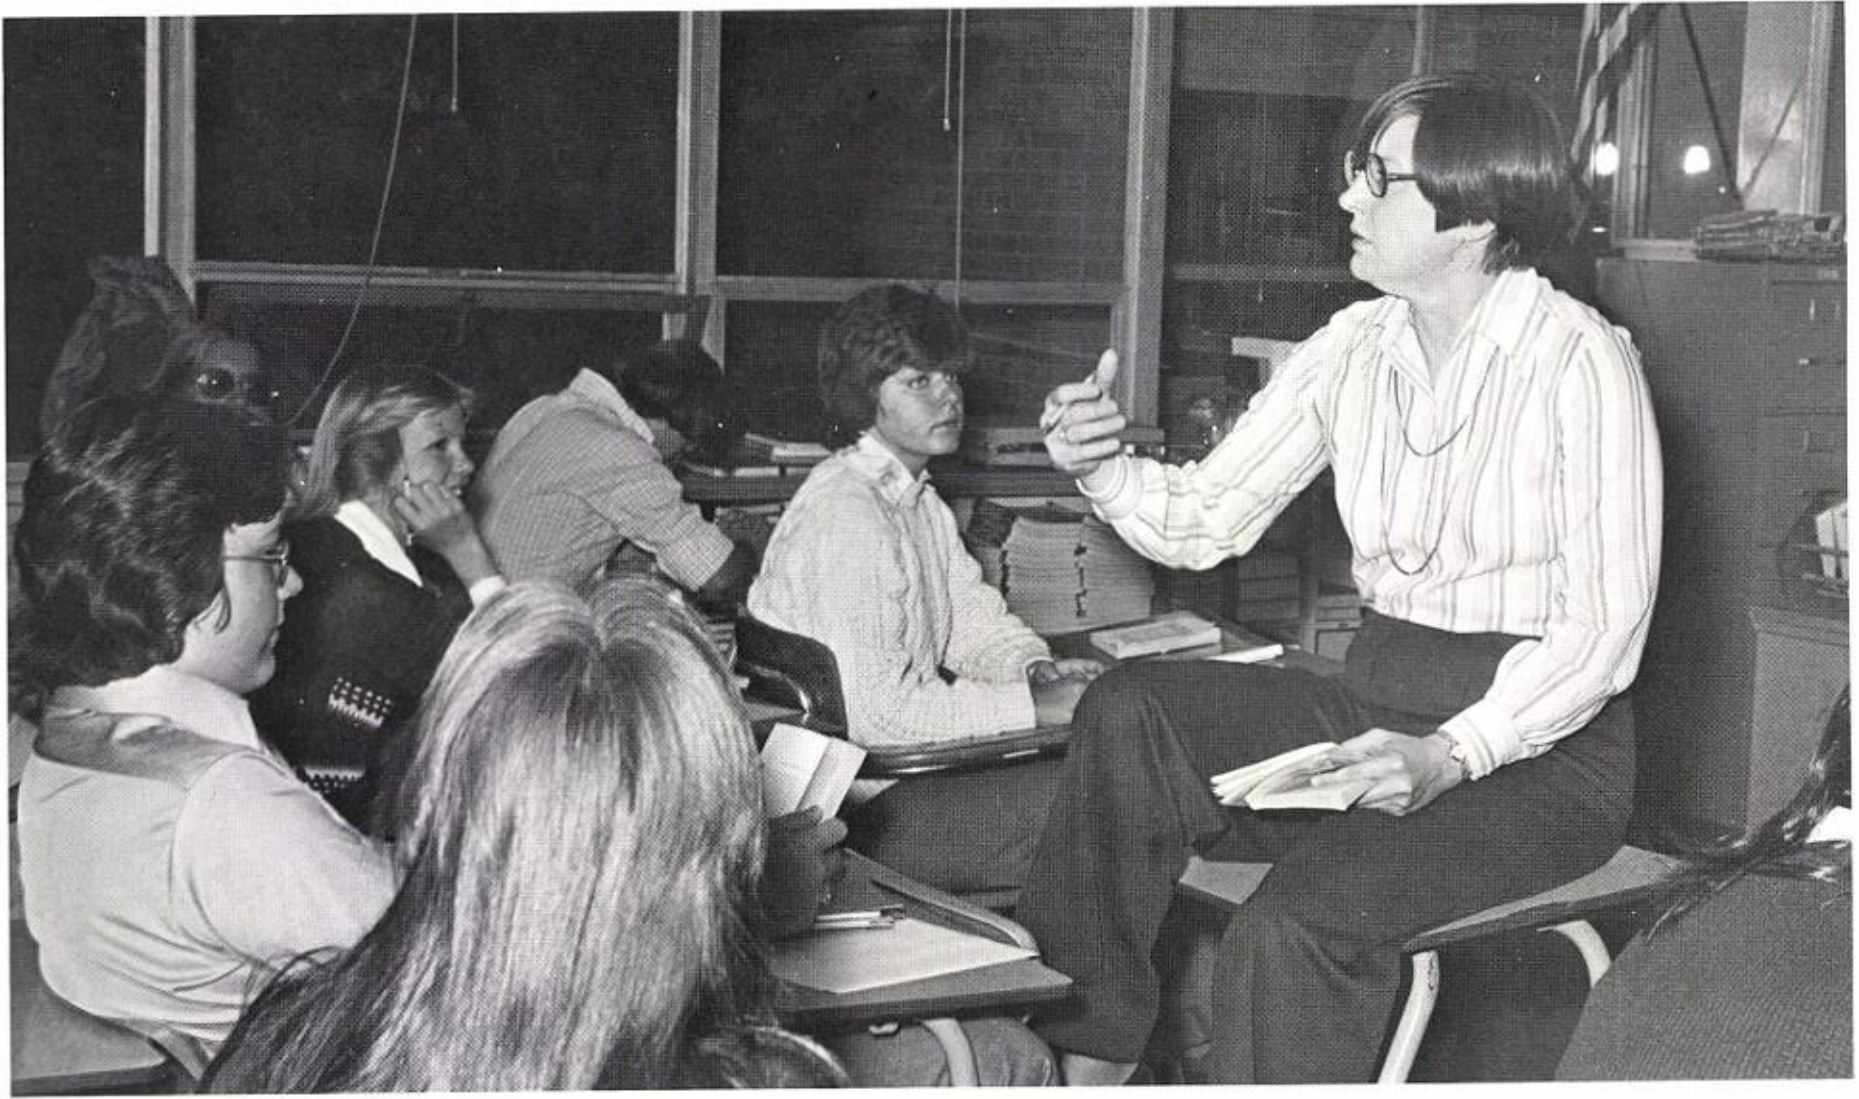

Mrs. Barb Potter finds a student's wrong answer humorous.

Mrs. Cynthia Batha diagrams a sentence for Dave Kozlowski.

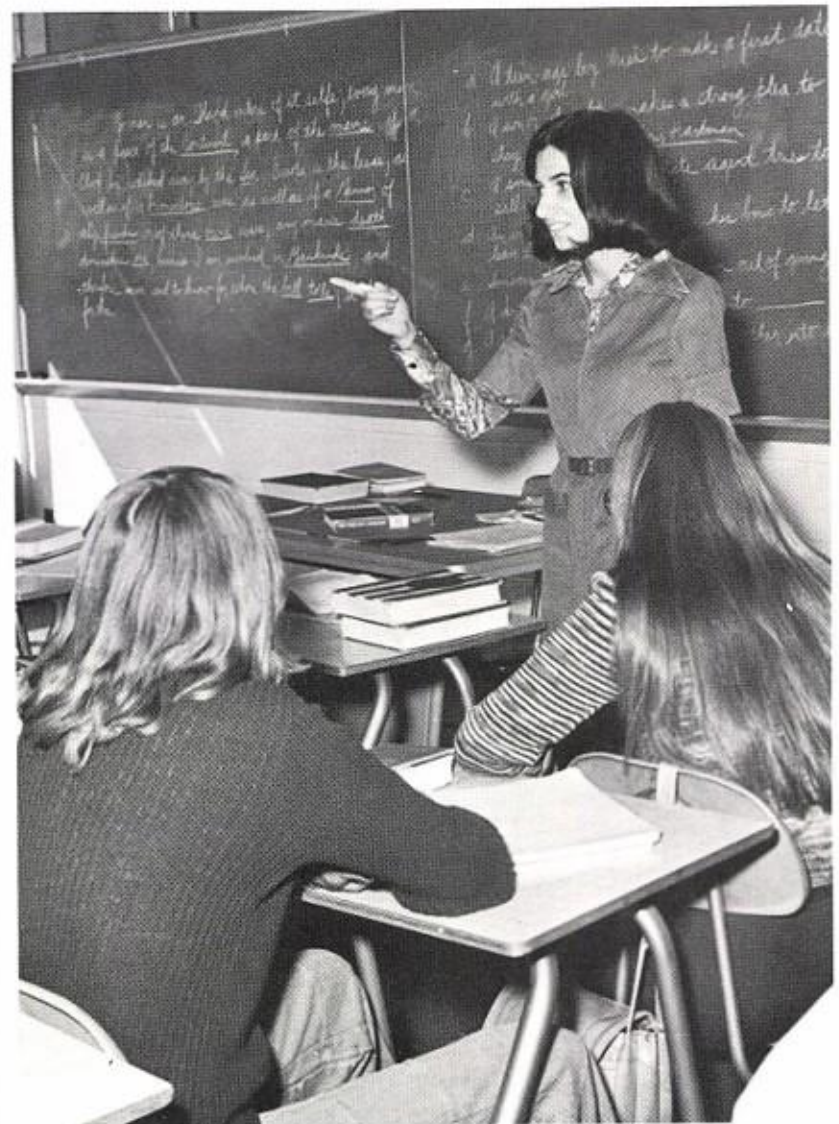

Jackie Isom listens intently as Mrs. Madelyn Ryan attempts to explain the importance of advertising in society.

Miss Nancy Lehnert explains to her Advanced Composition class the irony of the story they have been studying.

Mr. Daniel Gass points out to one of his sophomore students the importance of proper grammar.

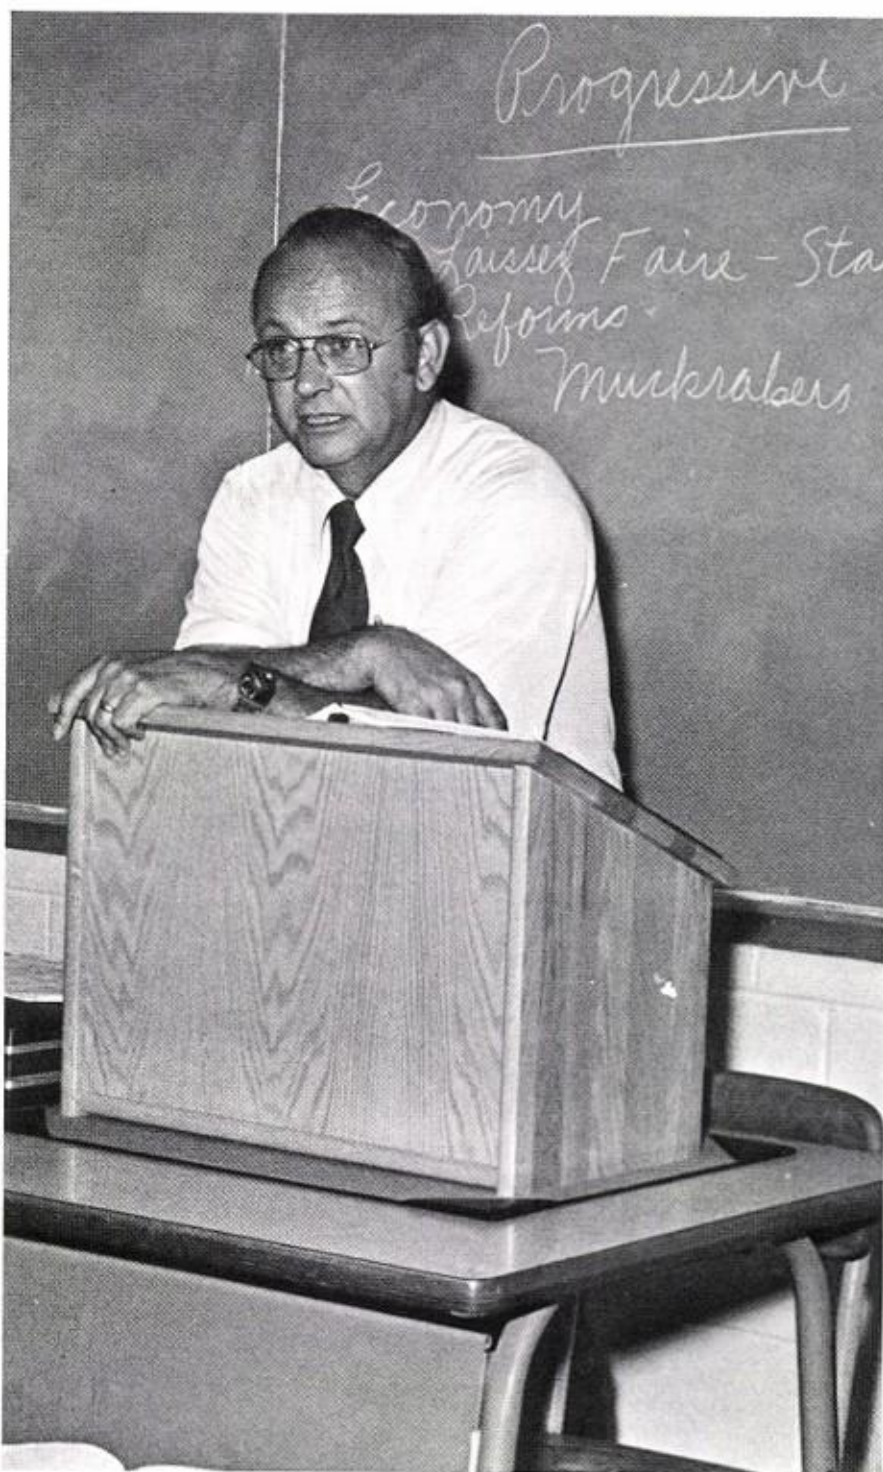

Mrs. Rita Stein discusses the proper form to use when writing a short story.

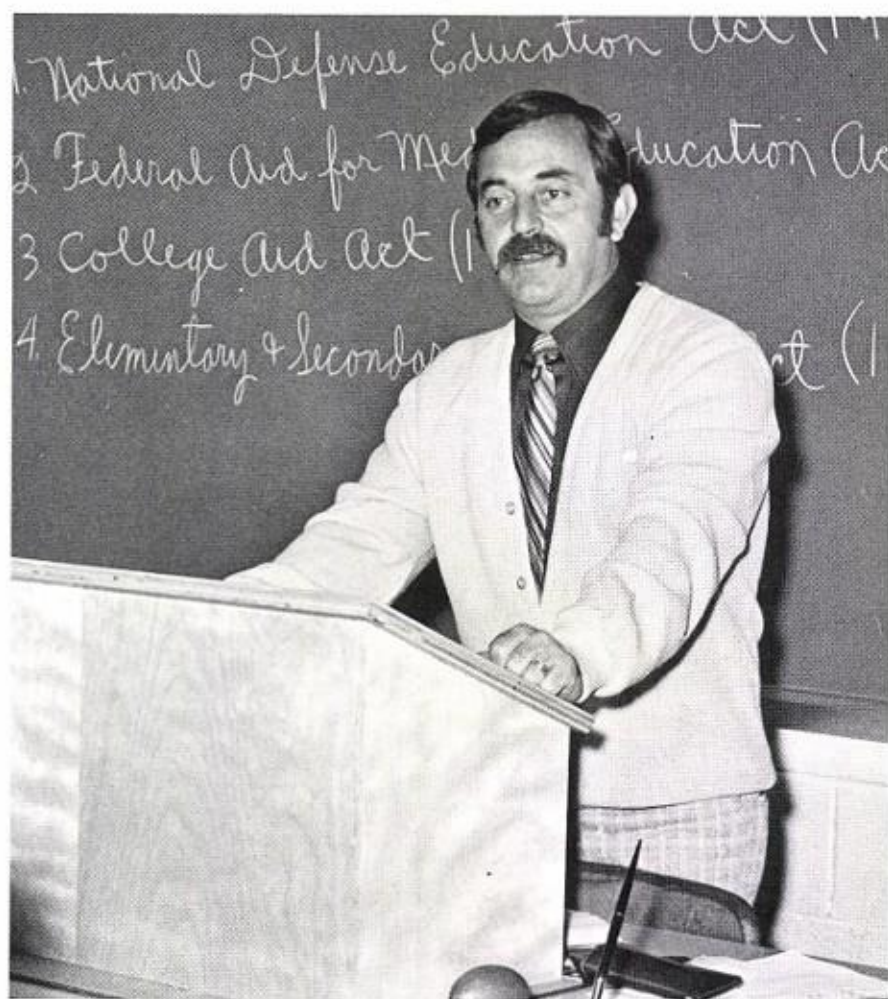

Combination Of Youth And Experience

Most of the teachers returning have more than ten years of teaching experience behind them. They vary from the more conservative teacher to the more liberal approach to education. One new face would be Mr. Ken Cornell, an addition from the junior high school.

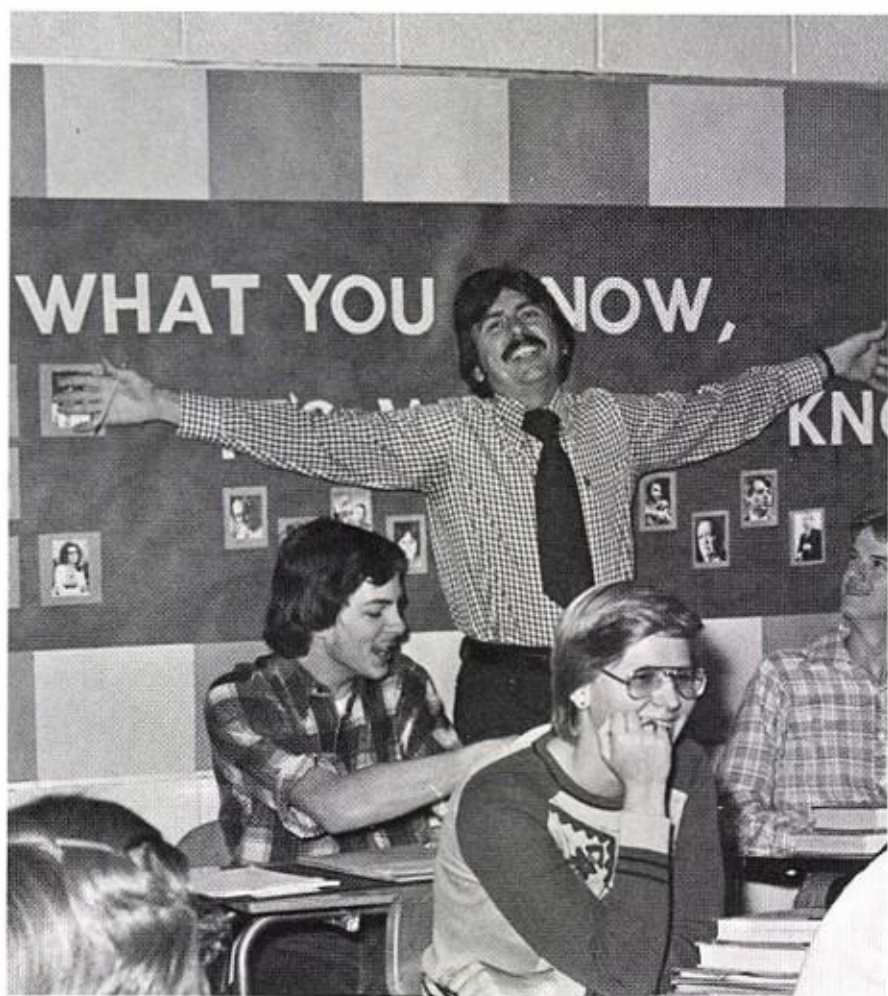

The History Department has added a new course called Contemporary Issues which attempts to help students make decisions in an everchanging society. The History Department kept the students well informed on the 76 elections with campaigning and posters all over the school.

Mr. Edward Eglinton, Department Chairman, talks to his class about World History.

Mr. Jack Newingham, head football coach, addresses his class on the important facts of American History.

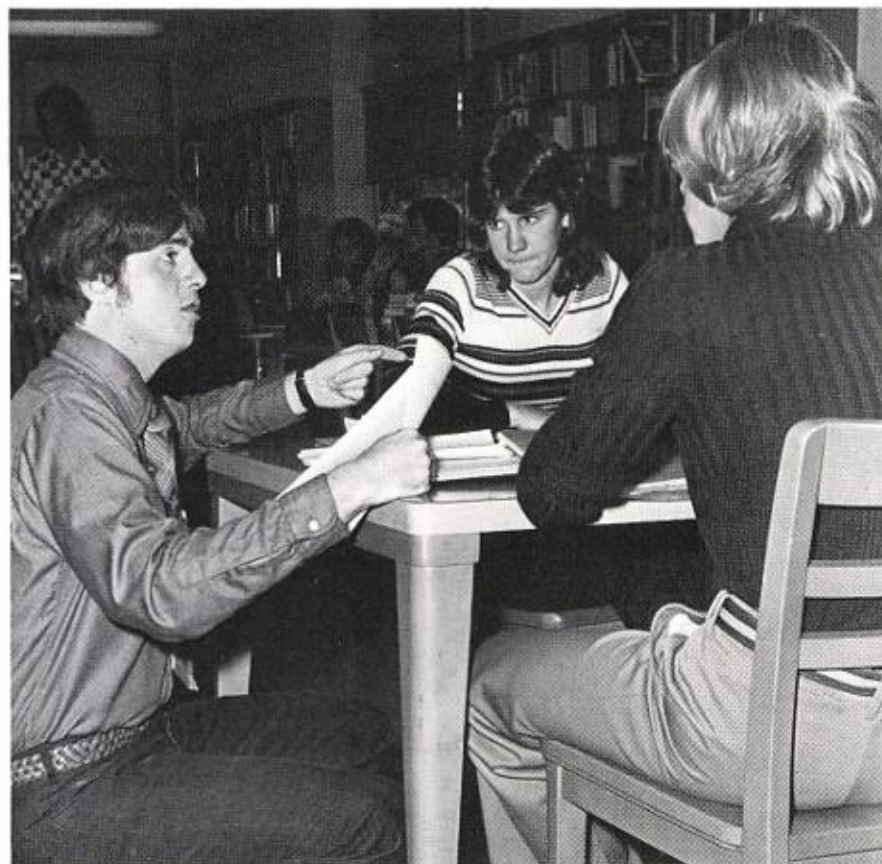

Mr. Bill Dummer is known for expressing himself freely in his government classes.

Miss Judy McCarthy, cheerleading sponsor, warns her class to study for their Government test.

Mr. Kenneth Cornell explains to Junior Jim Connett how to answer his American History questions.

Mr. David Simowski talks to a confused Carol Pruzzo about her Contemporary Issues assignment.

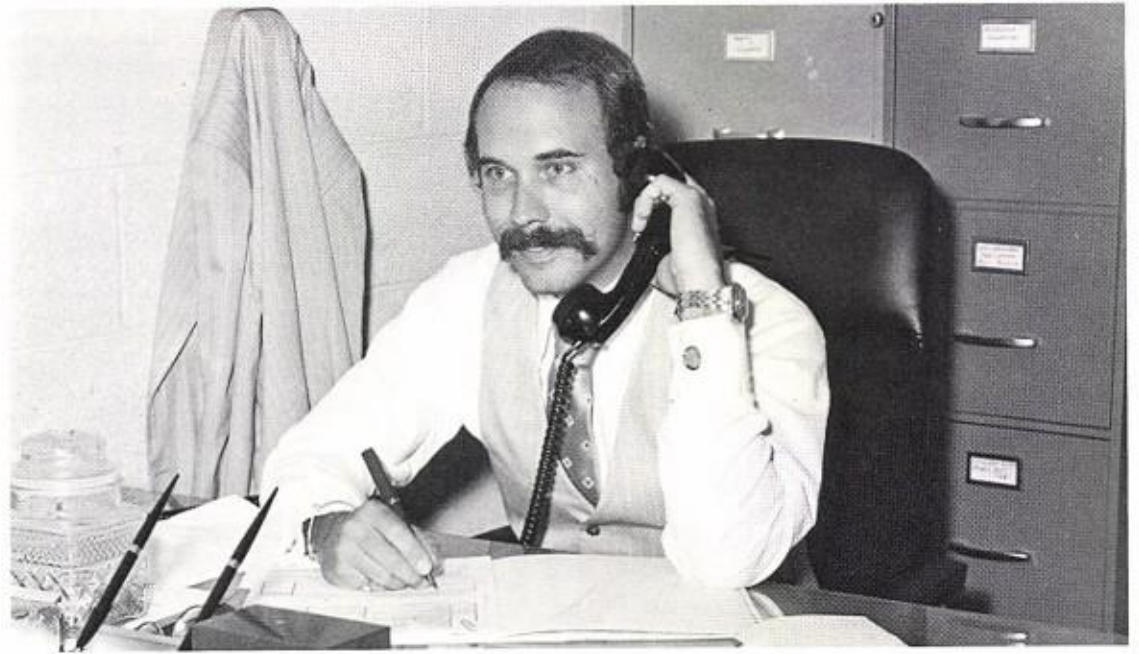

Mr. William Quigley points at Senior John Campbell to get his attention back to Government.

Striving Together To Build A Future

Mr. Parker and Mr. Oldham are two unique teachers. They have a gift of helping the students who are slower in certain areas of learning than others. Their classes are much smaller than most so they develop a personal friendly relationship with their students.

They strive to prepare their students for the outside world. Many hard hours of work are experienced by both the teachers and their students. The end result is usually a success. They are truly teachers to be admired.

Mr. Neal Oldham, who in addition to teaching, also is Sophomore advisor.

Mr. Bill Parker who in the past has served as football coach is now the J.V. baseball coach.

"They Do It All For You"

Mrs. Maxine Jeters and Mrs. Jean Steffes are truly two people to be appreciated.

Serving the new ala carte special requires a lot of time and effort. The ladies must budget their meals according to their profits.

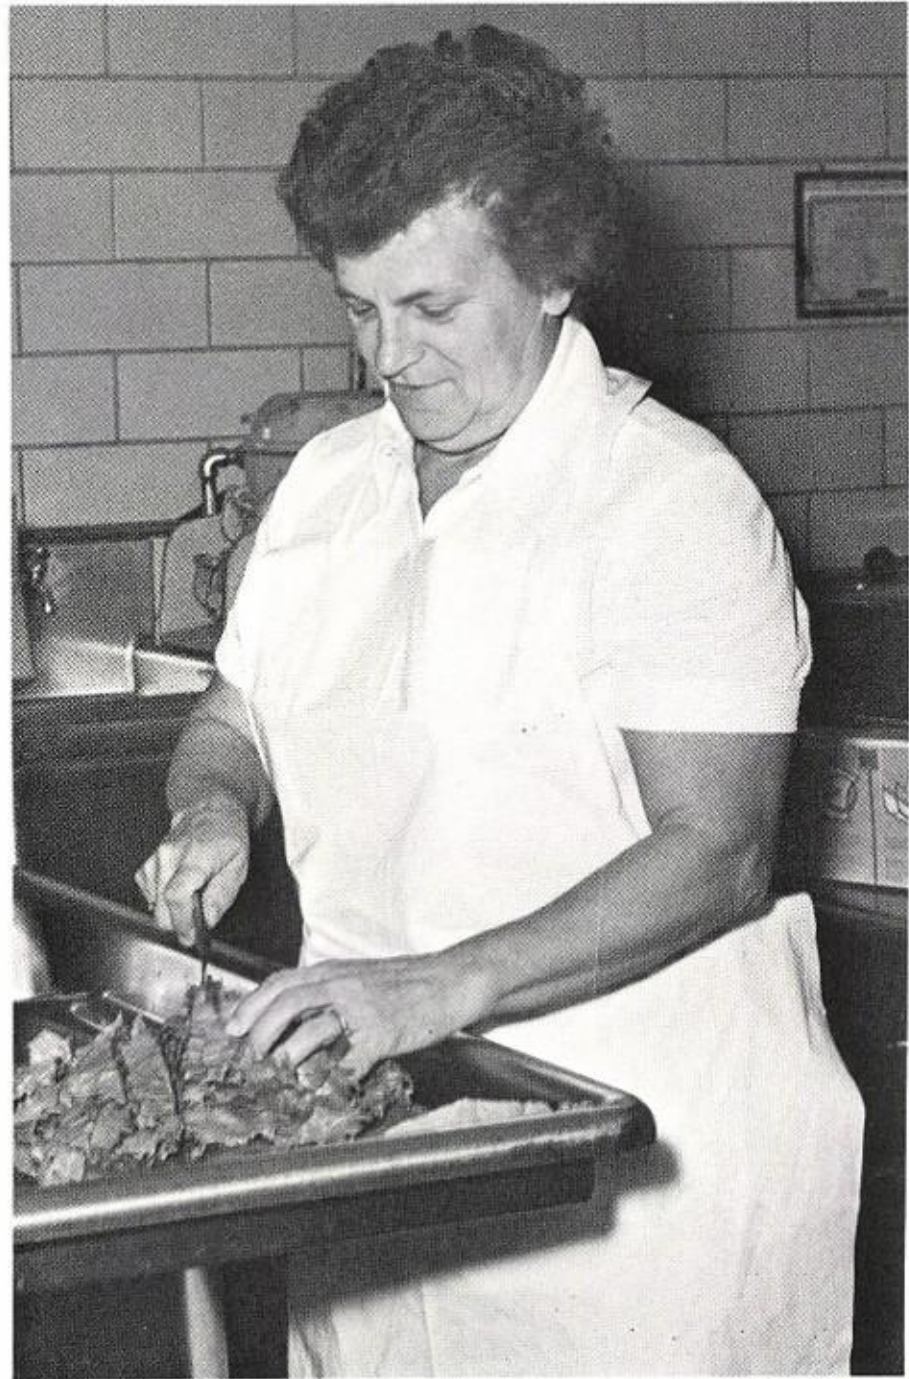

The custodians work around the clock to maintain cleanliness in the school. They also assist in aligning special events such as dances, sporting events and other school functions.

Mrs. Mary Annichini who was honored to serve as a judge for homecoming.

"Our apple sauce, builds strong bodies twelve different ways and puts hair on your chest," says Mrs. Jeanne Steffes.

"This ought to fill those hungry little critters," mumbles Mrs. Maxine Jeters as she prepares the side dishes.

LEAN

By Bill Withers

Sometime in my life,
We all have pain,
We all have sorrow,
But, If we are wise,
We know that there's always tomorrow.

Lean on me, when your not strong and I'll be your friend,
I'll help you carry on.
For, it won't be long,
I'm gonna need somebody to lean
on.

Please swallow your pride
If I have paid
You need to borrow
For no one can build build up your name
That you won't mention.

You just call on me brother
When you need a hand
we all need somebody to lean
on

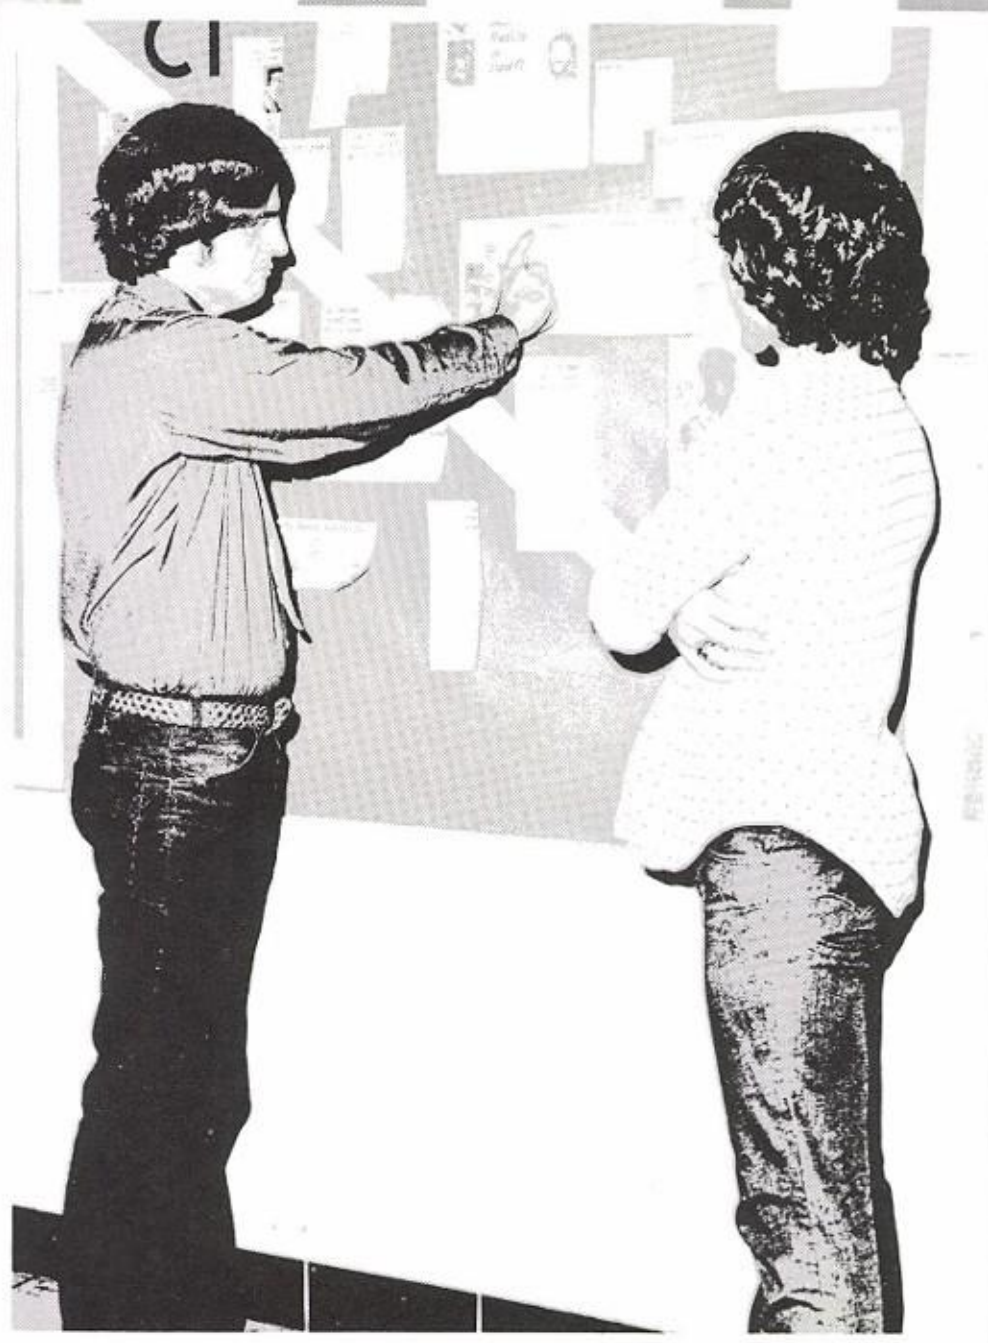

I just might have a problem
that you'll understand,
we all need somebody to lean
on

You just call on me brother
When you need a hand
We all need somebody to lean
on
I just might have a problem
that you'll understand,
We all need somebody to lean
on.

If, there is a load
which you have to bear
That you can't carry
I'm right up the road
I'll share your load
If you'll just call me.

Love is but a song we sing,
Feels the way we die.
You can make the mountans ring,
Or make the angels cry.
Though the bird lives on the wing,
And you may not know why.

Come on people now,
Smile on your brother.
Everybody get together,
Try to love one another right now.

Some may come and some may go,
We will surely pass.
When one night left us here,
He turns for us at last.
We are but a moments sunlight,
Fading in the grass.

Come on people now,

Come on people now,
Smile on your brother.
Everybody get together,
Try to love one another right now.

If you hear the song I sing,
You will understand. (listen)
You hold the key to love and fear,
All in your trembling hands.
Just one key unlocks the bolt,
It's there at your command.

Come on people now,
Smile on your brother.
Everybody get together,
Try to love one another right now.

Come on people now,
Smile on your brother.
Everybody get together,
Try to love one another right now.

I said,
Come on people now,
Smile on your brother.
Everybody get together,
Try to love one another right now,
Right now, right now!

Excitement, Dedication, The Crowning, And Relief.

Thanks to the weeks of work and preparation the Annapolis High Homecoming was a complete success. The theme, songs from the 60's to present, brought back many hits, such as the winning floats "Bridge Over Troubled Waters" and "The Candy Man."

The Senior Class experienced what could have been a disaster, but turned out to be touching. The night before Homecoming the final touches were being made on their float, when suddenly a fire erupted and demolished their float. People from all classes and clubs came to help rebuild the float. The result was a highlight for all the school, since it proved our pride and togetherness.

The excitement never ceased as the Cougars beat the Redskins 29-0. Completing a perfect day, was the Homecoming Dance, with all its enjoyment.

On a brisk sunny October afternoon the great '76 Homecoming continued, while a crowd well over two thousand, watched the Cougars trounce Oak Park 29 to 0. In the first half the Cougars ruined Oak Parks' hopes for a victory by scoring three touchdowns and added one more in the second. At halftime, the Homecoming was dedicated to Mr. Strome, who was accompanied by his wife and family. He received this honor because of his enthusiastic support and interest in the students of our school. Also, Nancy Morin was officially named Queen of 1976 Homecoming and trophies were awarded to the Junior Class and the Cheerleaders for the best class and club float.

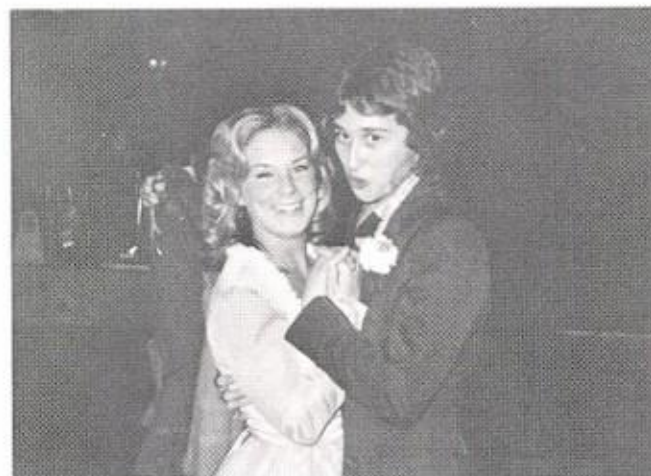

After the game, a game ball was presented to Mr. Newingham signed by all the players and coaches. Within a couple of hours, it was time for the Homecoming Dance as a climax to a beautiful week. Almost 200 couples attended the semi-formal affair which featured the sounds of Nite Flite.

The qualities to make a good cheerleader are dedication, enthusiasm, spirit and skill. Under their new 1977 sponsor Miss Judy McCarthy, these girls exceeded to induce a feeling of pride and spirit in everyone, by applying these qualities to themselves!!! Decorating lockers, baking cakes, making signs and having a winning Homecoming Float are a few of the other things put together by the girls. These girls work out all year long, starting in the summer at camp which was held this year at Ashland College, Ohio where they brought home many awards from both squads, including the Spirit Stick, and out of ninety-one squads there, the varsity squad was nominated one of eight squads picked to compete for the Award of Excellence. Following this, was our fantastic football and basketball season, loaded with pep rally's and activities. In the spring, the varsity squad competed in District-Regional and State Cheerleading Competition on the eighteenth and twenty-fifth of February. This shows the year 1977 was the best.

Performing And Competing For Success

The Drill Team has put in another hard year. The new squad went to camp in Vincennes, Indiana and put in a gruelling but rewarding week. Always on the look for new routines, they attended a drill team clinic in November. They performed with the band during every halftime at the football games and in every parade. During basketball season they performed jazz and pom-pom routines. Another tough year-but well worth it!

Bortolon Presentation Key Attraction!

One of the social highlights of Annapolis High School is Pride Week. It was held during the week of February 7th through 11th and, as in the past, the main purpose of this event is to promote greater spirit and pride among the students and faculty.

Many activities such as a big wheel race, a tug-of-war, a dance marathon, skits, and 24 hour basketball dribble allowed the students to become involved during the week.

This year, Pride Week was dedicated to Miss McCarthy and the cheerleaders, and the senior captured the Pride Week Trophy.

Ann Farkas and Steve Marx were elected the 1977 Pride Queen and King and reigned all week. They were elected by pennies not by the usual paper ballot as in the past.

With the help of all the student body Annapolis High has had a successful Pride Week for the past nine years and hopefully it will continue to be a successful and gala event.

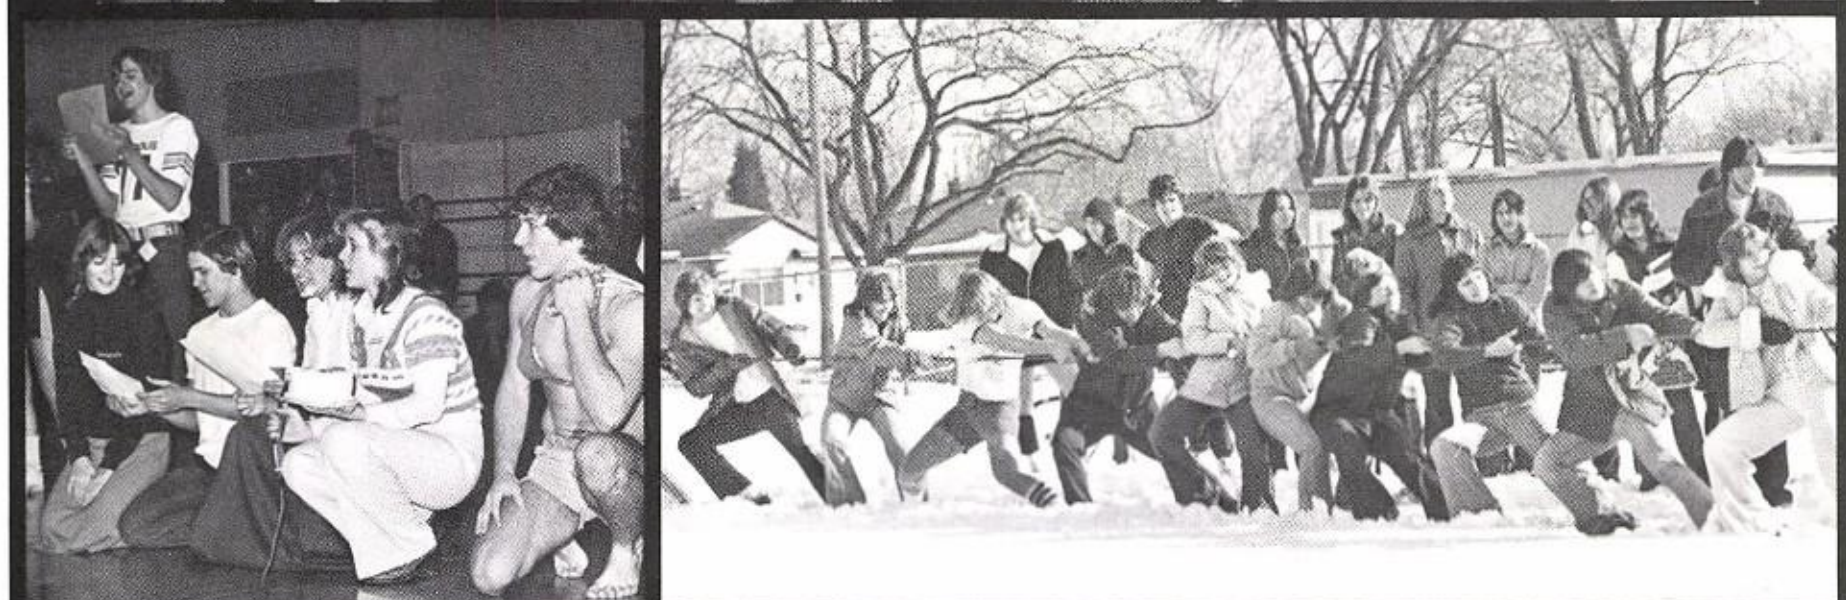

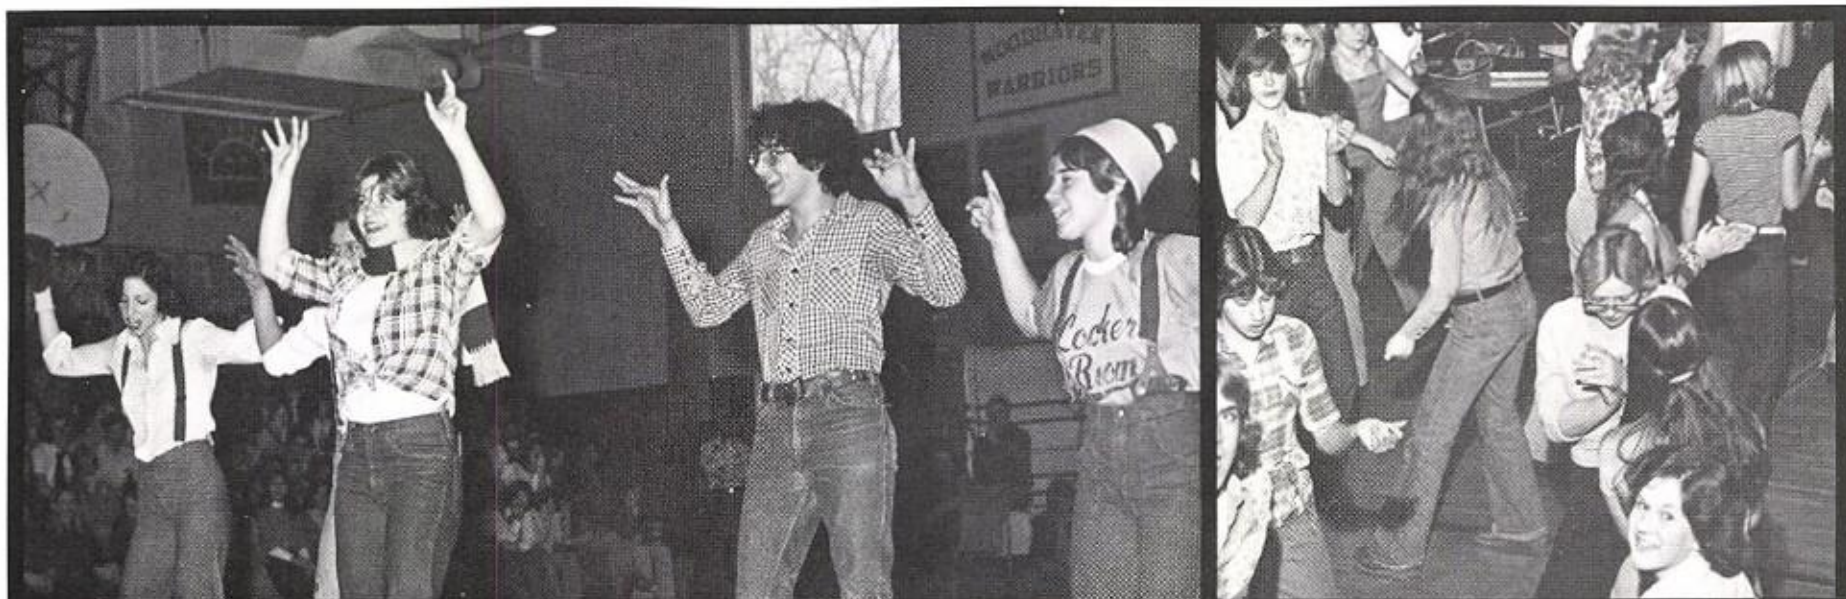

Steve Marx and Ann Farkas are proud to be our 1977 Pride King and Pride Queen.

That's Pride

Jill Vaughan reads her winning pride essay, "That's Pride."

After watching committee's meet and activities being planned by different clubs, organizations, and students, one has to wonder if all this preparation is worth it. All those early morning or late night gatherings, the headaches and tiredness, the feeling of failure; is it worth it? To many students at Annapolis, it is.

Many students participate in athletics, going through rigorous condition programs, spending half their summer, Christmas, or Easter vacation working together as a team. They swim that extra length with chlorine filled eyes, or sprint for three more yards just striving to be able to win and be the best for their school. Sometimes they lose. But still they lose with dignity, knowing they tried their hardest.

Still others are involved in various clubs and organizations. These students go over routines and march in soggy fields. Others stay in the evening to rehearse dance steps and lines, or work together carefully and thoughtfully on the school newspaper or yearbook.

But pride is not just confined to athletics and clubs. Pride is a feeling, not really something you can put your finger on. It is really giving up a part of yourself and your time, to make your club, sport, and school the best ever. That, is pride.

Yes, Annapolis, it is worth it.

Quality Is Seen In "Cougar Crier" Performance

This year's Cougar Crier staff, under the direction of sponsor Mr. Dan Gass, met with eagerness the challenge of keeping the school informed. With Jill Vaughan as editor-in-chief the newspaper staff came up with several new devices to make the paper more appealing to students. A question of the month, a Dr. Hangpoo column and a gossip column have all added to the newspaper's success this year.

This year the newspaper came out more often than ever before and subscriptions were at an all time high with close to 60% of the school purchasing the paper. This year's staff was a combination of three juniors and 12 seniors.

In Pursuit Of All-League Council

Revision of their Constitution as well as the three classes' constitution, and adoption of Parliamentary procedure, were significant accomplishments of the 1976-77 Student Council. Under President Sue Perkins, the council also arranged the major events for Homecoming in October and Pride Week in February.

Other various highlights included: putting on a Talent Show, Exchange Day with league and non-league schools, sponsoring of the Victory Dance in November for fall sport champions, a Red Cross Blood Drive in March, decoration of the school for Christmas, and major revisions in the traditional Pride Week format, thus providing more purpose and direction for those involved. Money raised during Pride Week activities is being donated to worthy causes.

Initiation Of Debate-Forensics

For the first time at Annapolis, our school has a debate team. A debate consists of two sides, negative and affirmative. Every year there is a different proposition and this years' proposition was: should there be a comprehensive reform in our prison system?

The team was hard working and well organized. It had many scrimmages and meets with schools in our area as well as the league debates.

Basically, Forensics is the analyzing of a selection from literature and effectively communicating all of its elements to an audience. A person participating on the team can choose anything from informative to humorous reading to speak on.

This year, Annapolis has successfully competed against various schools in the area.

Theatre Arts Upholds A Tradition

The Theatre Arts Department has added another exhilarating musical to its unblemished credit. FIDDLER ON THE ROOF was a brilliant production, under the direction of Mr. Bob Nanni. It may now proudly stand alongside its predecessors, SOUTH PACIFIC, CAROUSEL, MY FAIR LADY, and HELLO DOLLY, knowing that it too was an overwhelming success.

Our Thespian troupe 3216 has done many fascinating and different things this past year, besides putting on one of the best musicals this school has ever seen. It has been one of the fortunate few to participate in the New York trip offered by the National Thespian Society. Also, this is the first time any high school has taken their production to other schools for additional performances.

Developing Skills, Producing Materials, Highlight Functions Of Print Production

The 1976-77 Vocational Printing Class works very hard to achieve their goals. The students in this class also strive to attain the ever demanding goals of today's business world.

Many of the graduates of Vocational Printing rely on the trade as a career after attending a college or technical school. A student must qualify for this course by achieving high standards in previous printing courses.

The class produces projects such as: work for the Board of Education, administrative office material, play programs, sports programs, tickets for athletic events, note pads, and other various supplies.

The Vocational Printing Class also participated in a "Printing Bowl Quiz" competing against other schools in the Detroit Metro Area. This quiz was held in conjunction with National Printing week in January sponsored by the Detroit Club of Printing House Craftsman.

In Service Training In Washington D.C.

Using the facilities of Washington D. C. as a classroom, Annapolis students for one week were part of an intensive experience in head to head discussion with Congressmen, Senators and young people from all over the country.

Members had considerable opportunity for every kind of encounter: formal briefings, informal questioning; and spontaneous and imaginative rap sessions. They shared a phenomenon that opened new doors to human understanding of what is in other people's heads.

Adult Education Begins In District

Adult Education offers night classes held at Annapolis which helps students and adults further their education. Registration started in the month of August to the middle of September. It is under the direction of the Huron School District and is run by Mr. John Sisson, who is the director, with Mrs. Dorothy Eros as secretary.

These classes are held four nights a week from 6:30-10:00 p.m. There are two 19 week semesters. The types of classes range from powder-puff mechanics to chemistry.

Students Learn By Doing It Themselves

There are many students throughout the school who help out teachers in the lab, library, office and gym.

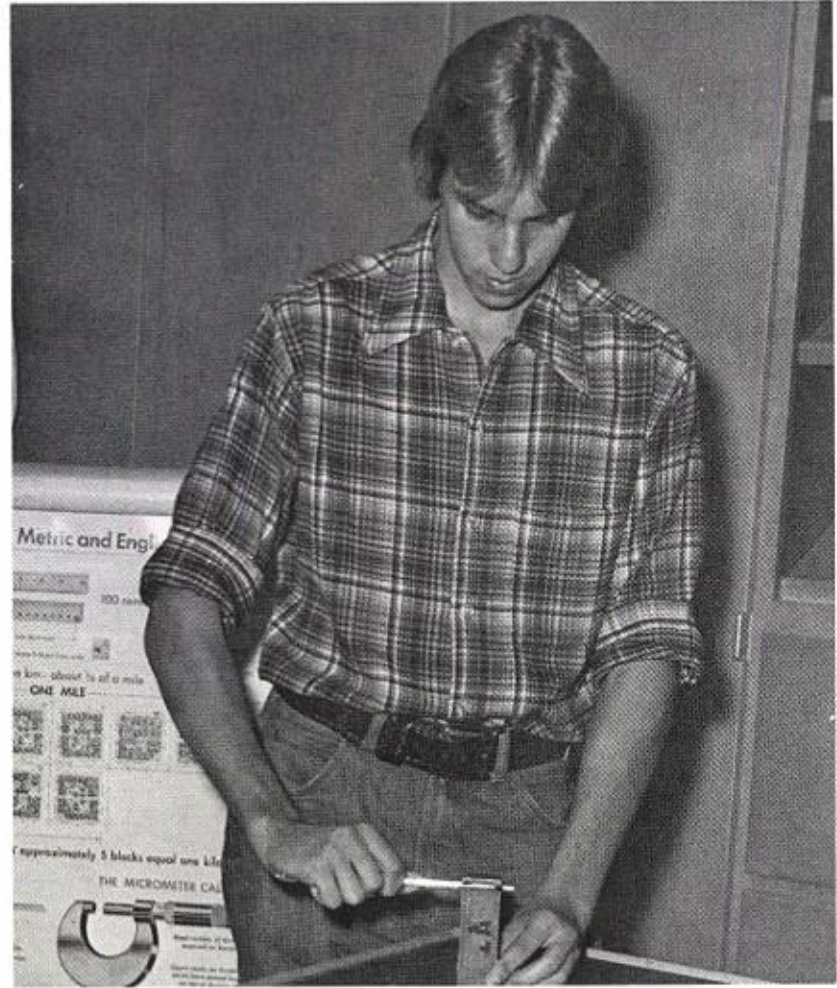

The lab students are chosen by Mr. Frank Lupo. Their main jobs are tutoring students after school, setting up experiments, getting supplies and grading quizzes. In the library, the girls check books in and out, file books, and help students find necessary books and information. The secretaries in the office have their helpers who reorganized the counseling office, file physicals and other student information, and help out the secretaries and administration whenever possible. The gym assistants' main job is to lend moral support to the teachers. Also, they take attendance, check showers, grade papers and demonstrate techniques.

The Beginning Of A Career

Business Co-Operative Vocation Education may be one of the most important courses offered at Annapolis High School. It is a program that allows a student to investigate a career in a business occupation. It helps the student to make the many adjustments needed in the world of work along with the opportunity to find out if what they have selected for an occupation is really what they want. Besides earning experience they also earn wages for their work.

TIME IN

If I could save Time in a bottle
The first thing that I'd like to do
Is to save every day
'Til Eternity passes away
Just to spend them with you.

If I could make days last forever
If words could make wishes come true
I'd save every day like a treasure and then,
Again, I would spend them with you.

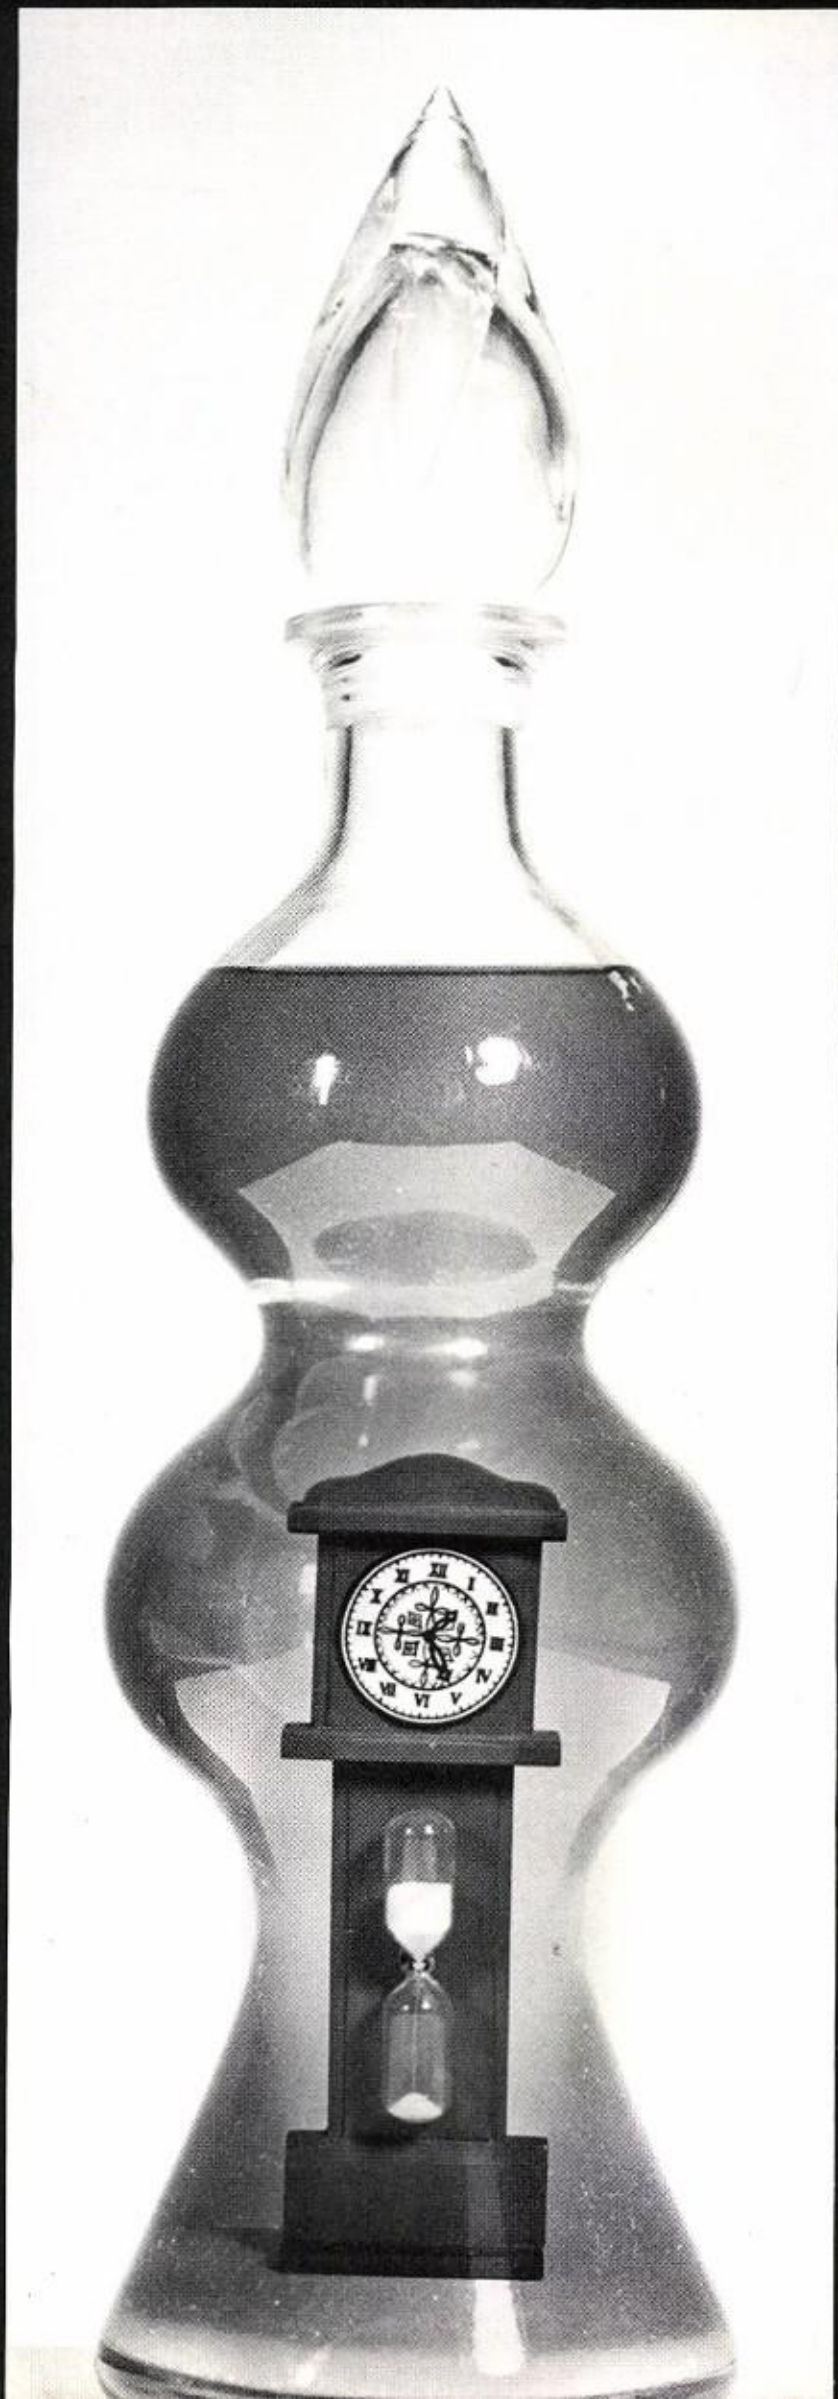

But there never seems to be enough time
to do the things you want to do
Once you find them
I've looked around enough to know
That you're the one I want to go
Through time with

If I had a box just for wishes
And dreams that had never come true
The box would be empty
Except for the memory
Of how they were answered by you.

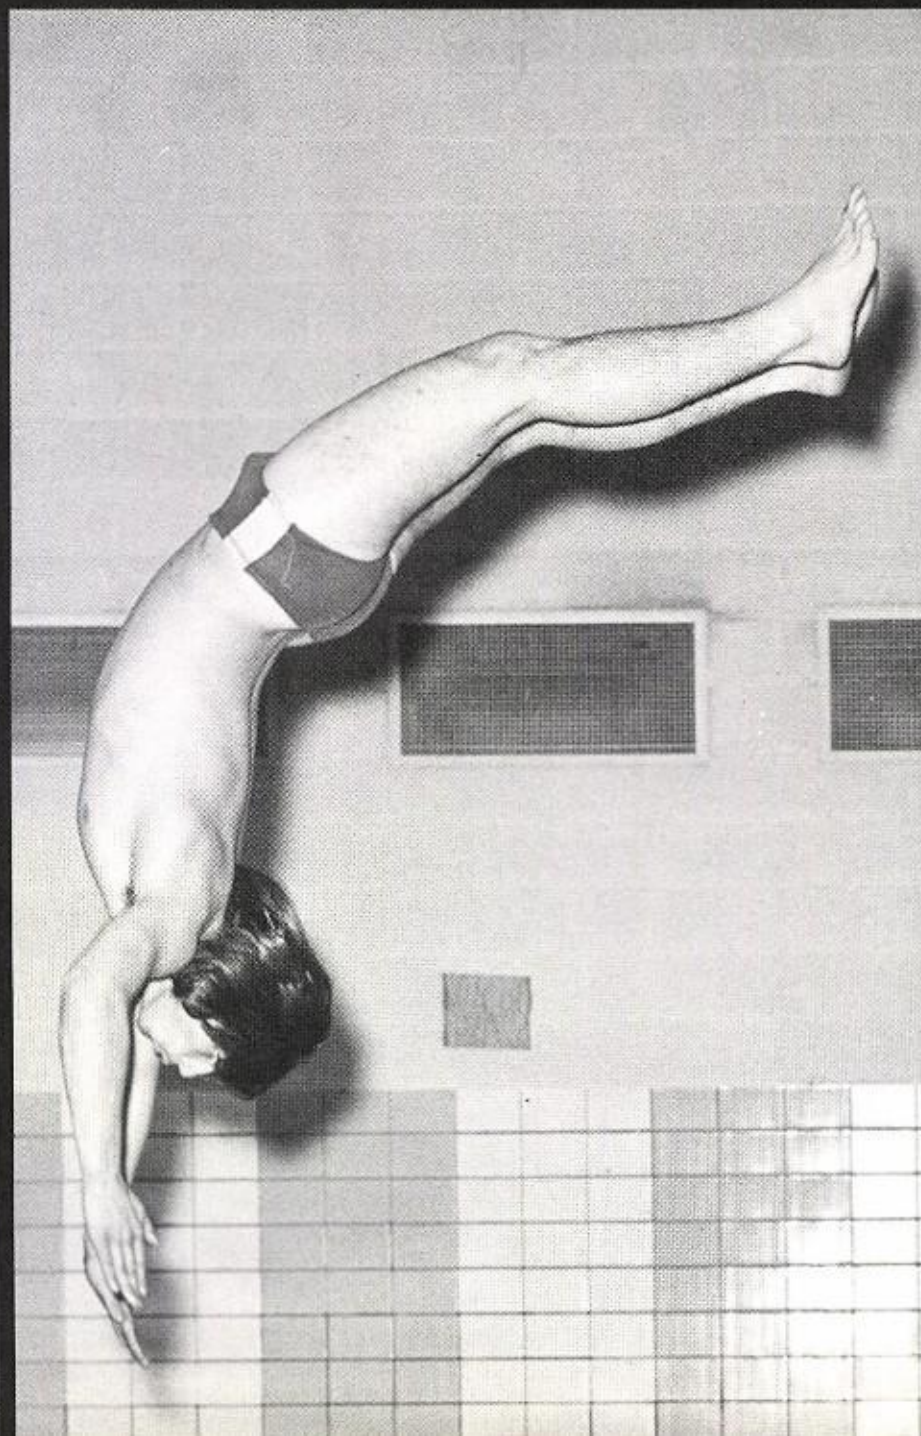

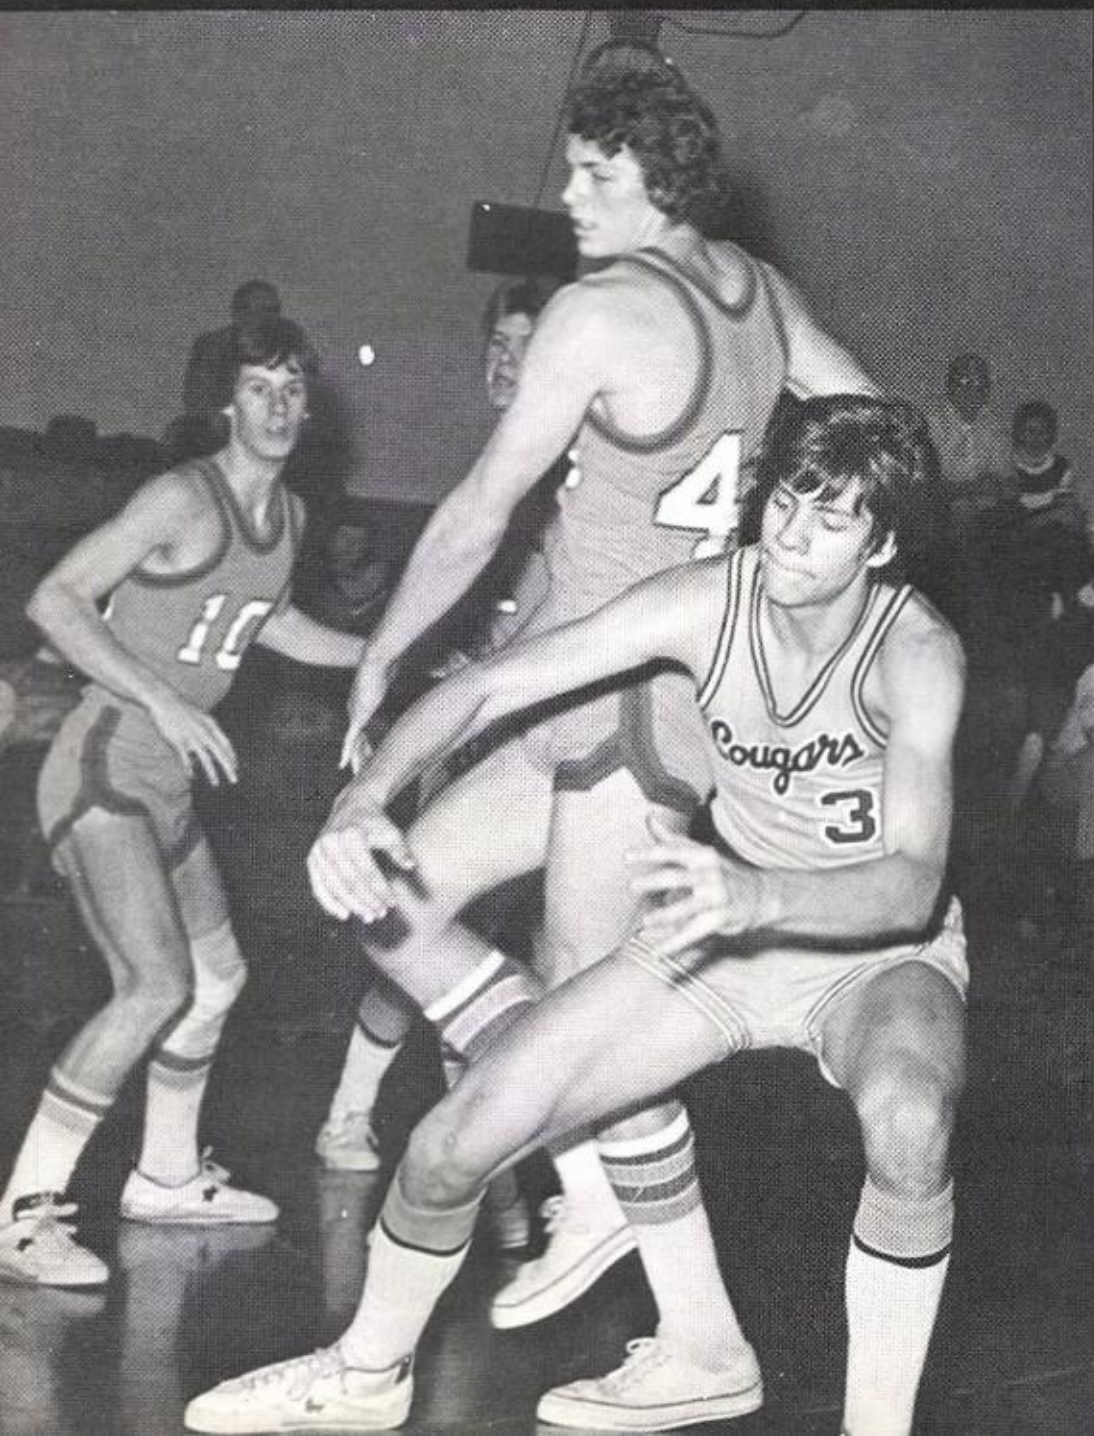

But there never seems to be enough time
To do the things you want to do
Once you find them
I've looked around enough to know
That you're the one I want to go
Through time with.

FEELIN' STRONGER EVERYDAY

Oh I do believe in you and I know you believe in me,
 Oh, yes; oh, yes, but now we've realized love's not all
 That it's s'posed to be. Oh, yes; oh, yes.
 And knowing that you would have wanted it this way,
 I do believe I'm feelin' stronger ev'ry day.
 I know we really tried together, we had a love inside,
 Oh, yes; oh, yes, so, now the time has come for both of us to live on the run.
 Oh, yes; oh, yes.
 And knowing that you would have wanted it this way,
 I do believe I'm feelin' stronger ev'ry day. Yeah, Yeah,
 Yeah
 Yeah, Yeah, Yeah; ah.
 After what you meant to me, ooh, baby, now
 I can make it easily; yah, yah, yah.
 I know that we both agree, the best thing to happen to you,
 Is the best thing that happens to me.
 Yah, Yah, Yah.
 Feelin' stronger ev'ry day. You know I'm Alright now.

WE MAY NEVER PASS

Life-so they say
Is but a game and they let it slip away
Love-like the Autumn sun
Should be dying but it's only just begun
Like the twilight in the road up ahead
They don't see just where we'er goin'
And all the secrets in the universe
Whisper in our ears and all the years will come and go
And take us up always up

We May never pass this way again
We May never pass this way again
We May never pass this way again

Dreams-so they say
Are for the fools and they let them drift away
Peace-like the silent dove
Should be flying' but it's only just begun

Like Columbus in the olden days
We must gather all our courage
Sail our ships out on the open sea
Cast away our fears and all the years will come and go
And take up up-always up.

We May never pass this way again
We May never pass this way again
We May never pass this way again

THIS WAY AGAIN

Thanks In Pictures And Words.

We have accomplished this book, of what will soon be pictures and words of the past, with the help from one man who spent many long and hard hours with us to bring it to you. He is one who may not only be called an advisor but also a friend. He has made our class fun and helped us to produce one of the best yearbooks to have come out of Annapolis.

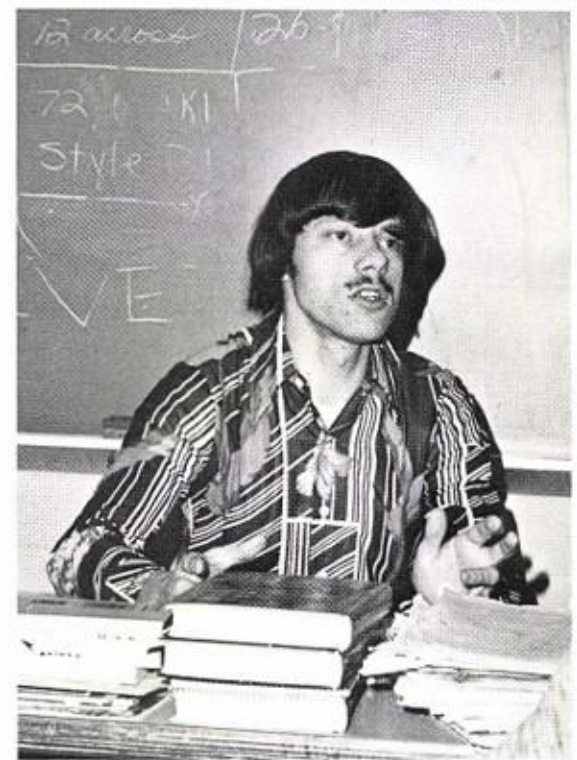

This man does not only dedicate himself to Publications but also as the Advisor of Student Council. Many hours of his time was spent organizing activities for both you and I throughout the year.

In past years at Annapolis he was an assistant football coach. Though he did not coach this year he helped the team in many ways behind the scenes.

As a friend you may know him as "Gonch" which is a name he established while teaching here, but as a man we will all know him as one who dedicated himself to Annapolis High School. In return we are honoring him in a small but big way by dedicating our 1976-77 yearbook to him. Now as these pictures turn to words, you may all see that this man is Mr. Darryl Goncharoff.

Thank you Mr. Goncharoff, you will always be remembered by many including myself.

Sincerely,
Kathy Vecchioni (Editor)

1977 Yearbook Staff Strives For #1

The Catamount staff of 1976 - 77 certainly had a tough act to follow. In November, the results of the Columbia University Yearbook Contest revealed that the previous edition of Catamount took a second place rating in the country.

This class, however, developed splendidly the theme of music of the past. The theme was synonymous with this year's Homecoming theme. Each section of the yearbook reflected a song of yesteryear. Rights to the lyrics were obtained from the various song publishers. For the first time the senior section was developed in color compliments of Arella Studio. The end sheets also were produced in color.

All in all, under the leadership of editor Kathy Vecchioni, this Publication staff showed unique talent and relentless determination. Even though there will be three fine returning students, there is no doubt that this group of young of people will be greatly missed but long remembered.

Sincerely,
Mr. Goncharoff

I carved a name.
I carved a day.
It was my thought and way
of saying goodbye.
I left while the sun was Starting its lonely journey across the sky,
knowing that
I might never come back.
And yet--
part of me must stay.
I carved a name.
I felt the grieve
of leaving.
While the lighthouse lost its sweeping beam
in dawn,
I carved a day.

Live Your Life Now

Seconds, minutes, hours, days, months, years.
Time. All things revolve around that magic word.
Each hour adds a new dimension into your life.
Each day brings you closer to the reality of death.
Live your life now. Enjoy it to it's fullest extent.

Take advantages of opportunities, present and future.

But remember, school is a major influence as regards to what you do.

Remember the places that shape your destiny.
Remember the faces, faces that care.
